MERLIN OLSEN FIELD

To honor one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history, Utah State University named the playing field inside Maverik Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field," making the announcement at halftime of a men's basketball game in December, 2009. Olsen was in attendance for the ceremony. He passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles, California, on March 11, 2010, after a courageous battle with cancer.

An official dedication ceremony took place on Oct. 23, 2010, as part of Homecoming festivities in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of Utah State's 1960 Sun BowlTeam, led by Olsen. During the official dedication of Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium, a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Olsen, which was sculpted by nationally-renowned artist Blair Buswell, was unveiled in the southeast corner of the stadium.

Utah State and Maverik, Inc., owners of convenience stores throughout the Intermountain West, jointly announced a long-term naming rights partnership to its football stadium, which was previously known as Romney Stadium, beginning in the 2015 season.

This partnership with Maverik was the catalyst for a major renovation to the stadium, which focused on greatly improving the overall fan experience. On the west side, the West Stadium Center, a five-story premium seating and press box structure, was completed prior to the 2016 season, which includes a state-of-the-art media and game operations area, 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that is also used to host a student-athlete training table. Major concourse work included significantly increased restrooms, upgraded concessions and an enlarged concourse for better pedestrian traffic flow.

Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system.

Maverik Stadium's original seating capacity through 1980 was 20,000. Thanks to a massive volunteer effort in 1980, approximately 10,000 seats were added to the southern bowl. Prior to the 1997 season, approximately 4,000 chairback seats replaced wooded bleachers on the west side of the stadium. The modifications made to accommodate this seating upgrade placed stadium capacity at 25,513 prior to the 2015 season. Following the renovations made to the stadium with the addition of the West Stadium Center prior to the 2016 season, the seating capacity is now 25,100.

Ahead of the 1999 season, new scoreboards were added at each end of the stadium and additional bleacher seats were installed, as well. New aluminum bleachers replaced wooden bleachers on the lower sections of the east side of the stadium in 2001. In 2003, that project expanded to the upper sections.

Prior to the 2005 season, a new south end entrance, improved concession stands and restroom facilities, as well as a widened concourse on the east side of the stadium were completed.

Immediately after the 2006 season, the old north end zone complex was torn down and replaced with the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex. The Laub Complex is a three-story, 69,000 square-foot facility that serves to meet the academic and athletic needs of all 16 Utah State University intercollegiate sports. The state-of-the-art facility houses the Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Hall of Honor, J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room, locker rooms, coaches offices, meeting rooms, luxury suites, a student-athlete academic center and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor.

In December of 2009, USU Athletics renamed the playing field inside Maverik Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field."

In the summer of 2022, the Astro Turf was replaced with a state-of-the-art FieldTurf. The Astro Turf was installed in 2012, which replaced a SprinTurf that was installed in 2004. Prior to that, USU played on a bent bluegrass field.

Also prior to the 2022 season, new chairback seats were installed on the west side of the stadium.

And prior to the 2023 season, additional restrooms were added and concourse work was done to the south side of the stadium

The stadium was designed specifically for football with all seats, until the 1980 expansion, located between the 15-yard lines and all directed toward the 50-yard line. The first row of seats on the east, west and south sides are elevated eight-feet above the playing field and within 30 feet of the sidelines. Like most stadiums, the field runs north and south.

The stadium was financed by a student body which believed in athletics to the extent of underwriting a special bonding assessment for both Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum, which serves as home to USU's basketball and gymnastics teams.

The continuing growth of Utah State's campus prompted University planners to relocate the original Romney Stadium, which was built in 1927 on the grounds where the Health, Physical Education and Recreation building now stands. That facility was dedicated on Oct. 8, 1927, in recognition of legendary football and basketball coach, and athletics director, E. Lowell "Dick" Romney, who spent 29 seasons as the Aggies' athletics director and head football coach from 1919-48. Romney, who guided the Aggies to four conference championships (1921, 1935, 1936, 1946), compiled a 128-91-16 record (.579 winning percentage) in 29 seasons (1919-48).

That structure served as Utah State's home for 41 seasons (1927-67). USU played its final game in the old complex on Nov. 11, 1967, as the Aggies defeated Montana, 20-14.

Maverik Stadium was originally built in 1968 and officially dedicated on Sept. 27, 1969. The first game in Maverik Stadium history was Sept. 14, 1968, when Utah State defeated New Mexico State, 28-12. In 57 seasons, USU has posted a 165-121 (.577) record inside Maverik Stadium.

Utah State's largest crowd to witness a game in Maverik Stadium was 33,119 in a 45-17 loss to Brigham Young on Oct. 4, 1996.

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State's student section, known simply as The HURD, supports the Aggies' football team every home game. The HURD is Utah State's spirit club for all athletics. It is currently the largest club of Aggie students at Utah State. The HURD attends coaches' shows, sports nights, tailgate parties, pre-, post- and away-game parties and pep rallies. Additionally, road trips are another activity that The HURD provides at least once a week for all of its members.

Show 'Em Your "A"

In 1909, the first senior class gift was an "A" placed on the west side of Old Main tower. The "A," now on all four sides of the tower, can be seen throughout the valley, especially at night when lit in white. For special occasions and athletic wins, the "A" shines blue.

Utah State will be taking the field for the 128th season of football in 133 years in 2025. USU took the field for the first time on Nov. 25, 1892, and defeated in-state rival Utah, 12-0.

GAME DAY

Utah State teams were nicknamed "Big Blue" by the Logan Journal as early as 1916, an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyon stories. USU adopted the official school colors of Blue and White in a special meeting of USU faculty on Nov. 7, 1901.

The Utah State Spirit Squad, consisting of the Aggiettes Dance Team, the Cheer Squad and the Big Blue mascot, encourages enthusiastic student participation at Aggie athletic events, promoting USU pride through new ideas, traditions and activities. The USU Pep Band leads the Spirit Squad and the crowd with the "Hail The Utah Aggies," "The Scotsman" and other musical selections.

When USU athletics began, Utah State was known as the Utah Agricultural College. The first USU athletics teams were nicknamed the "Farmers." Aggies, a contraction of Agriculturalists, first appeared in the late 1890s.

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies, we'll play the game with all our might.
See the colors flying, the Aggie blue and fighting white.
How they stir us onward; we'll win the victory all right.
Hail the Utah Aggies; we're out to win, so fight, fight, fight!
Utah State, Hey!
Aggies all the way!
Go Aggies! Go Aggies!
Hey! Hey! Hey!

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Completed in June of 2013, Utah State's $6.5 million, 26,329 square-foot iFIT Sports Performance Center features areas for weight training, cardiovascular workouts and speed and agility training, as well as offices for staff. Built on existing university property at the northwest corner of Maverik Stadium, the state-of-the-art multi-level facility alleviated overcrowding in the previous 5,800 square-foot strength and conditioning center and accommodates almost 400 student-athletes from 16 sports programs.

The iFIT Sports Performance Center is the largest such facility in the Mountain West and rivals any strength and conditioning complex in the country. Of the schools Utah State competes against in the MW, Fresno State currently has the second-largest strength and conditioning center(s) at 12,500 square feet, followed by Air Force (12,000 sq. ft.), Boise State (12,000 sq. ft.), Wyoming (11,100 sq. ft.), Hawai`i (10,000 sq. ft.), New Mexico (10,000 sq. ft.), Colorado State (10,000 sq. ft.), San José State (10,000 sq. ft.), UNLV (8,200 sq. ft.) and Nevada (8,000 sq. ft.).

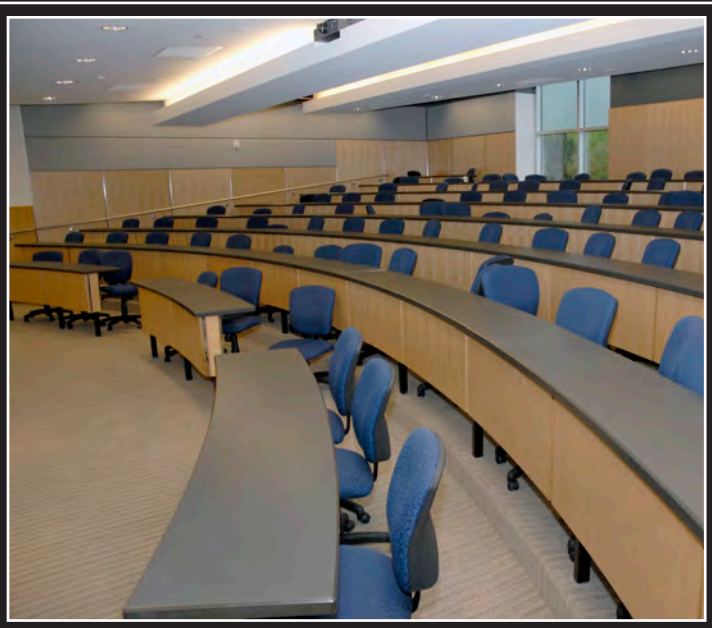
The three-story, 69,000 square-foot, Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex is a state-of-the-art multi-purpose facility that meets all of the athletic and academic needs of Utah State's 16 sports and 400-plus student-athletes. Within the facility, which was completed in the summer of 2008, is the 11,000 square-foot Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Athletics Hall of Honor and the 7,000 square-foot J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room. Also located on the first floor are locker rooms for football. The second floor houses coaches' offices and meeting rooms for football, including a 120-seat auditorium, and the student-athlete academics center is located on the third floor, which includes numerous study hall and tutor areas, a computer lab and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academics Hall of Honor.



LAUB ATHLETICS-ACADEMICS COMPLEX

Completed in August, 2016, and located inside Maverik Stadium, Utah State's $36 million, 85,000 square-foot West Stadium Center is a five-story premium seating and press box structure. It includes a state-of-the-art media and game operations area, 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that is also used to host a student-athlete training table. In addition to the structure, major concourse work included significantly increased restrooms, upgraded concessions and an enlarged concourse for better pedestrian traffic flow. Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA
CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors of America) has selected Academic All-America® recipients since 1952. Recipients are selected on the basis of their playing ability and outstanding academic achievement.

The Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor opened in September of 2010. Inside the Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor are four permanent displays to feature CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Award winners, current academic all-Mountain West honorees and current Aggie Athletics Endowed Scholarships donors and recipients.

During the 2024-25 academic year, Utah State had 254 student-athletes receive Academic All-Mountain West honors, while 227 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Utah State's student-athletes traditionally rank among the best in the Mountain West with a 91 percent graduation success rate and a cumulative 3.51 grade-point average. Additionally, Utah State's athletics department recognized 266 student-athletes for achieving a 3.2 grade point average at the inaugural Sagebrush Awards. To be eligible for the honor, student-athletes must have a cumulative 3.2 grade point average or have posted a 3.2 GPA during the last two semesters. In all, approximately 74 percent of USU's student-athletes earned a 3.2 GPA to qualify for the awards.

The third floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex houses the academic center for student-athletes. This center consists of a 24-unit computer center, a spacious study center, and several individual one-on-one tutor rooms. Additionally, there are three smaller classrooms that can be used for group study sessions, group tutoring, tutor meetings, and general meeting and study needs. Two of the classrooms can be opened to create one larger classroom. All classrooms have television monitors installed and have data connectivity for PowerPoint, internet and other useful presentations. The study center is completely wireless for student-athletes to connect to the internet anywhere in the facility, but also has sub-floor electrical and data connections throughout. The student-athlete services staff offices are also housed within the academic center.

Brothers and Logan natives Phil and Merlin Olsen were both consensus All-Americans for the Aggies. Phil (#72) was selected in 1969, while Merlin was selected in 1961. The brothers both played in the NFL and were teammates for the Los Angeles Rams from 1971-74.

Utah State University honored one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history with the unveiling of a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Merlin Olsen on Oct. 23, 2010, with a special ceremony on the South Plaza of Maverik Stadium prior to USU's Homecoming football game against Hawai'i. A large crowd attended the ceremony, featuring Olsen's family, friends, former teammates and former USU players among the dignitaries in attendance. Guest speakers for the ceremony included former USU President Dr. Stan Albrecht, former USU Vice President and Director of Athletics Scott Barnes, Steven Perry from the National Football Foundation, the statue's sculptor Blair Buswell, Douglas Mayberry, who was one of Olsen's USU teammates, along with Olsen's widow, Susan. Perry noted that the Super Bowl Pro Football Hall of Fame Luncheon, held the Friday prior to the Super Bowl, will be named after Olsen, one of only two Hall of Fame events named after former players. Buswell singled out his time spent with Olsen while working on the statue, noting that Olsen wanted the sculpture to show his pride in Utah State and Logan. Mayberry told a story about Olsen's hospitality before nearly knocking off your chin strap, noting the only time he saw Olsen relax was when he scored a rushing touchdown. Susan Olsen thanked Olsen's former teammates, friends and the University for their support of the family. She also read a eulogy written by Merlin Olsen prior to his death that wasn't found until after his passing, which talked about Merlin's appreciation of the love and concern from his supporters, former teammates and family throughout his time growing up in Logan, at Utah State, in the NFL and his broadcasting and acting career.

Merlin Olsen's statue was created by nationally renowned Utah artist Blair Buswell and is 25 percent larger than Olsen's 6-foot-4 frame. When mounted on its base the statue is over 11 feet high. The statue depicts Olsen during his college playing days at Utah State, in full uniform and pads, with his helmet under his arm. The base of the statue is adorned with two plaques. One lists many of Olsen's accomplishments as a college and pro football player, as an actor and member of the media, and as a philanthropist and humanitarian. The other plaque lists Olsen's personal mission statement, an inspiring list of Olsen's personal priorities. Additionally, a list of all donors to the Merlin Olsen Field Campaign whose gifts were received prior to August 1, 2010, are mounted adjacent to the statue base. The statue, when set on its base, has at least one unique element. According to Google maps, Olsen's gaze directly faces toward the Olsen family home in Logan where he grew up, roughly two miles in a direct line from where the statue rests. In preparation for the statue to be installed a small courtyard was created with seating areas for contemplation. The block cement was used to convey Olsen's personal strength, and the vertical columns represent his personal mission to celebrate others.

NFL Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, the greatest athlete in Utah State University history, passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010, after a courageous battle with cancer. Olsen was a three-year letterman on the offensive and defensive lines for Utah State's football team from 1959-61, earning All-American honors during both his junior and senior seasons. During his senior season in 1961, he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior defensive lineman. Olsen also was a three-time academic All-American at Utah State and graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Kappa Phi in 1962 with a degree in finance.

HOME OF MERLIN OLSEN

Plain and simple, people who have been to Utah State University love it. No other place provides the complete package quite like USU: top-notch academics, nationally recognized research, Division I athletics, and more than 200 student clubs and organizations, all on the oldest residential campus in the state. And the mountains. USU, located in Logan, Utah, is just 15 minutes from two mountain ranges and within a half day's drive of six national parks, including Yellowstone. And as the # 2 public university in the nation in the "2020 National University Rankings" by Washington Monthly, USU provides big-school opportunities with a small-school feel.

FALL PREVIEW

A new era of Utah State football will be ushered in during the 2025 season with the hiring of veteran Bronco Mendenhall, who brings 18 years of head coaching experience with him to USU.

Mendenhall, who owns a 140-88 (.614) career record, has led 16 of his 18 teams to bowl eligibility, which ranks third among active FBS coaches, while his 140 career wins rank as the sixth-most. Combine that success with a USU program that has played in 11 bowls games, won two conference championships and five bowl games in the past 14 years, and has notched four 10-win seasons and been nationally ranked three times (2012, 2018, 2021) during that time as well, and Utah State football is positioned well for sustained success.

Mendenhall, who hired an entirely new coaching staff upon his arrival, has transformed the roster with the addition of 71 newcomers (O-28, D-36, S-7) to the program, which includes 29 four-year transfers (O-11, D-14, S-4), 14 junior college transfers (O-3, D-9, S-2) and 28 high school players (O-14, D-13, S-1). Collectively, the 29 four-year transfers have combined for 416 games played and 115 starts during their careers.

Mendenhall welcomes back four starters (O-1, D-3) and 18 letterwinners (O-10, D-8) from last year's squad in addition to seven returning redshirts (O-4, D-3) and 14 more players (O-8, D-6) that were members of the program in 2024.

Highlighting Utah State's returners in 2025 are three players that have garnered previous All-Mountain West recognition in graduate TE Broc Lane, senior DT Gabriel Iniguez Jr. and senior S Ike Larsen. Iniguez earned honorable mention All-MW honors last season, while Lane was an honorable mention MW selection in 2023. Larsen garnered first-team All-MW accolades in 2023 and was named a College Football News Honorable Mention All-American. In 2022, he was named second-team All-MW and a College Football News Honorable Mention Freshman All-American.

Other starters returning for Utah State in 2025 include graduate TE Josh Sterzer and senior ILB John Miller.

Utah State returns six more players who have made starts with the Aggies in junior OL Tavo Motu'apuaka (7), senior OLB Enoka Migao (5), senior QB Bryson Barnes (3), senior OL Trey Andersen (2), senior DT Bo Maile (1) and junior OL George Maile (1).

In addition to the players mentioned above, Utah State has nine newcomers on its roster with at least five career starts at the Division I level in senior CB Dylan Tucker (23), senior CB Noah Avinger (20), senior DT Naki Fahina (19), senior S Bryson Taylor (14), sophomore S Brevin Hamblin (14), junior DT Tyree Morris (12), senior OL Jake Eichorn (11), junior WR Corey Thompson Jr. (7) and senior WR Demick Starling (5).

Kahanu Davis

With a disciplined, physical approach rooted in toughness and execution, Mendenhall's Utah State football team is built to outlast and outwork its opponents. Emphasizing ball control, situational awareness, and a relentless, gap-sound defense, the Aggies are poised to bring a hard-nosed brand of football back to Logan, one capable of contending for a Mountain West Championship this fall.

QUARTERBACKS

Utah State returns one of the most electric dual-threat quarterbacks in the Mountain West in graduate Bryson Barnes. In his first year in the program in 2024, Barnes appeared in nine games, incuding three starts, and accounted for 1,386 yards of total offense. Barnes completed 77-of-126 (.611) passes for 856 yards with 12 touchdowns and six interceptions and threw multiple touchdown passes in five games, including three in each of his final two contests. He also rushed for 530 yards and five touchdowns on 68 carries (7.8 ypc). Barnes was named the MW Offensive Player of the Week and the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week following his performance against San Diego State (11/23) as he accounted for four touchdowns and had 332 yards of total offense as he came off the bench in the second quarter. Against the Aztecs, he set the single-game school record for rushing yards by a quarterback as he gained a career-high 193 yards on 15 carries and one touchdown for his first career 100-yard rushing game. The following weekend, he rushed for 185 yards on a career-high 24 carries and one touchdowns at Colorado State (11/29) to become the first quarterback in school history to rush for 100 yards in consecutive games.

Utah State returns two more players here that were part of the program last season in graduate Jacob Conover and sophomore CJ Tiller. Conover appeared in two games for the Aggies in 2024 and was 2-of-4 passing for 22 yards as he played against Utah (9/14) and San Diego State (11/23). Tiller did not appear in any games last year.

Joining the quarterback room are a pair of newcomers in sophomore transfer Anthony Garcia (Sacramento, Calif./Capital Christian HS/Arizona) and freshman Kaden Cox (Millville, Utah/Ridgeline HS). Cox completed 638-of-941 (.678) passes for 8,492 yards with 98 touchdowns and 20 interceptions from his sophomore to senior season at Ridgeline HS. As a senior in 2021, Cox was named the Utah Class 4A Offensive Player of the Year as he was 253-of-356 (.711) passing for 3,774 yards with 55 touchdowns and two interceptions.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Utah State's wide receivers room returns just three players from last season in senior Kahanu Davis, sophomore Jackson Olsen, and redshirt freshman Tate Kjar. However, none of those players had a reception in 2024. Davis appeared in eight games, mostly on special teams, while Olsen played in two games and Kjar did not appear in any games. During his redshirt season in 2023, Davis appeared in four games and had two catches.

To offset the lack of production returning from this group, Utah State brought in a wealth of experience with 11 newcomers, including five four-year transfers and one junior college player, to go along with three high school signees.

Senior Demick Starling (Nashville, Tenn./East Nashville Magnet HS/Western Kentucky) is the most experienced transfer to the program as he has played in 36 games with four starts at both Western Kentucky (2024) and Virginia (2020-23) and has caught 14 passes for 244 yards and two touchdowns.

Senior Brady Boyd (Southlake, Texas/Southlake Carroll HS/Texas Tech) has appeared in 34 games with three starts at Texas Tech (2022-24) and Minnesota (2021) and has caught 21 passes for 191 yards (9.1 ypr) and one touchdown.

Junior Corey Thompson Jr. (San Diego, Calif./Abraham Lincoln HS/UNLV) joins the Aggies after spending the past two seasons at UNLV (2023-24), where he appeared in 21 games with seven starts and caught eight passes for 115 yards and one touchdown.

Junior Braden Pegan (San Juan Capistrano, Calif./San Juan Hills HS/UCLA) is another four-year transfer who will look to make an immediate impact at USU after spending the past two years at UCLA (2022-24) as he appeared in 13 games with one start across three seasons.

The final four-year transfer to join the wide receivers group is redshirt freshman Carlos Orr-Gillespie (Etowah, Tenn./Gatlinburg-Pittman HS/Illinois) who redshirted during the 2024 season at Illinois and did not appear in any games.

Newcomers here include sophomore Cade Baker (Highland, Utah/Lone Peak HS/Saddleback College) and freshmen Nikko Boncore (Peoria, Ariz./Centennial HS), Kaleb Mitchell (Dallas, Texas/First Baptist Academy) and Ty Olsen (San Diego, Calif./Lincoln HS). Highlighting this group is Mitchell, who caught 46 passes for 959 yards (20.8 ypr) and eight touchdowns as a prep senior to earn first-team All-State honors, while Olsen caught 53 passes for 903 yards (17.0 ypr) and 12 touchdowns during his senior season to earn first-team All-State accolades.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Despite returning 11 players along the offensive line from the 2024 campaign, only two of those players saw significant playing time last season in senior Trey Andersen and junior George Maile. Andersen played in 10 games with two starts in his first season with the program a year ago as he played a total of 185 snaps and had eight knockdowns. Overall, he has played in 31 career games as he spent his first three seasons at Pittsburgh (2021-23).

Maile appeared in all 12 games with one start in his first year with the program in 2024 and finished the season playing in 354 snaps with 20.0 knockdowns. In all, Maile has played in 33 collegiate games as he spent two seasons at Baylor (2022-23), appearing in 13 contests.

Utah State does return another proven starter here in junior Tavo Motu'apuaka, who missed the 2024 season due to injury. As a redshirt freshman in 2023, Motu'apuaka started all seven games he played in as he appeared in 397 snaps and had 12.0 knockdowns.

Other players who saw playing time in 2024 include seniors Elia Migao and Jared Pele and junior Adam Pond. Migao is the most experienced player among this group with 22 career appearances, while Pele played in 11 games in his first year with the program in 2024 and Pond appeared in four games.

Five more players with experience in the program are back for the 2025 campaign in sophomores Jarvis Griffiths, K'leyone Iosua and Jr Sia, and redshirt freshmen Camden Jury and Caysen Whittaker.

In addition to the 11 returners listed above, Utah State added seven newcomers to the offensive line, including a trio of four-year transfers, to go along with one junior college player and three high schoolers.

Jacobs appeared in seven games during the 2024 season at New Mexico and rushed for 277 yards on 40 carries (6.9 ypc) and three touchdowns and caught 17 passes for 130 yards (7.6 ypr) and one score. Prior to New Mexico, he spent two seasons at Arizona State (2022-23) and appeared in 15 games.

Ebunoha spent three years (2022-24) at BYU as he appeared in 17 games and had five tackles (3 solo).

Hamblin spent two seasons at Utah Tech (2023-24) as he appeared in 23 games with 14 starts and recorded 139 tackles (71 solo), including 1.0 sacks and 5.0 tackles for loss, to go along with three pass breakups, two forced fumbles and one blocked kick.

Barnes spent two seasons at Nebraska (2023-24) and appeared in one game.

Another addition is junior college transfer Titan Saxton (Smithfield, Utah/Sky View HS/Snow College). During the 2024 season at Snow College, Saxton earned National Junior College Athletic Association Second-Team All-America honors as he recorded 47 tackles, which included 2.0 sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss, to go along with three pass breakups, two interceptions, and one fumble recovery.

Two freshmen round out this group in Charger Doty (South Jordan, Utah/Bingham HS) and Lava Vailahi (Salt Lake City, Utah/West HS).

SPECIAL TEAMS

Despite having no returners here this fall, Utah State will have plenty of talent within its specialists as it welcomes seven newcomers to the program, which includes four transfers from four-year programs, to go along with two junior college transfers, and one high school player.

Two placekickers joined the roster in redshirt junior Carter Brown (Pearland, Texas/Dawson HS/Cincinnati) and junior Tanner Rinker (Castle Rock, Colo./Douglas County HS/Garden City CC).

Brown has appeared in 26 games during his collegiate career and is 29-of-38 (.763) on field goal attempts and a perfect 71-of-71 on extra points as he spent two years at Cincinnati (2023-24) and one year at Arizona State (2022).

Rinker tied for fourth nationally in field goals as he was 10-of-13 (.769) and made 46 extra points as a sophomore in junior college. During the 2024 season, Rinker scored a total of 76 points to led the nation among placekickers.

Three punters have also joined the program in junior Dylan Sprague (Laguna Beach, Calif./Laguna Beach HS/Saddleback College), sophomore Landon Rehkow (Veradale, Wash./Central Valley HS/BYU) and freshman Zachary Robbins (Payson, Utah/Payson HS).

Rounding out the specialists are a pair of incoming long snappers in sophomores Owen Edwards (Washougal, Wash./Washougal HS/Hampton) and Hyrum Hatch (Buffalo, Wyo./Buffalo HS/New Mexico).

Hatch spent the 2024 season at New Mexico and was named a College Football Network Honorable Mention Freshman All-American.

/// BRONCO MENDENHALL ///

• Bronco Mendenhall is in his first season at Utah State after being named the Aggies' 31st head football coach on Dec. 6, 2024. Mendenhall has 33 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 18 as a head coach, and has guided 16 teams to bowl eligibility.

• As a collegiate head coach, nine of his teams have been nationally ranked, and his 140 career wins — which includes seven bowl victories — are the 13th-most in the FBS among active coaches. In all, more than 115 of his former players have signed contracts to play in the NFL.

• Mendenhall returns to the state of Utah after serving as the head coach at New Mexico in 2024. He also spent six years as the head coach at Virginia and 11 seasons at BYU. Overall, he has a 140-88 (.614) career record as a head coach and led Virginia to its first-ever Orange Bowl in 2019.

• At BYU, Mendenhall posted a 99-43 (.697) record, including a 39-9 (.813) mark in six seasons as a member of the Mountain West, to rank fifth all-time in wins and eighth all-time in winning percentage in league history. Overall, he led the Cougars to 11 straight bowl games, including six bowl wins, and a pair of conference championships in 2006 and 2007. BYU was one of 11 FBS programs to play in 11 straight bowl games during that time. He also posted five 10-win seasons, including three 11-win campaigns, and averaged nine wins per season during his tenure at BYU.

• Mendenhall has spent seven years coaching in the Mountain West with six years at BYU (2005-10) and one year at New Mexico (2024). Overall, he has a 42-13 (.764) record in MW games, which ranks as the fifth-most wins in league history and the sixth-best winning percentage. He was named the MW Coach of the Year in 2006.

• Mendenhall came to Utah State after spending the 2024 season at New Mexico. He guided the Lobos to a 5-7 record, marking the most wins by the program in eight years. Their season was highlighted by a 38-35 victory against No. 19 Washington State, snapping a 26-game losing streak against nationally ranked teams. The UNM victory was its first win over a top-20 team since 1994 and its first non-conference win against a top-20 opponent since 1940.

• Under Mendenhall, New Mexico finished the 2024 season fourth in the FBS in total offense at 484.3 yards per game, fifth in rushing at 253.6 yards per game, and 28th in scoring at 33.5 points per game. The Lobos had nine players earn All-Mountain West honors, including two first-team selections, which were the most for the program since 2014.

• Mendenhall guided New Mexico to its highest grade point average (GPA) in program history in his first semester with the team earning a 3.22 GPA for the spring 2024 semester.

• Before New Mexico, Mendenhall spent six seasons (2016-21) as the head coach at Virginia, leading the Cavaliers to bowl eligibility in his final five years, the longest streak for the program since 1996-2000.

• In 2019, Virginia went 9-3 and won the Atlantic Coast Conference Coastal Division with a 6-2 mark, playing Clemson for the ACC title, both of which were firsts in program history. The Cavaliers went unbeaten at home and defeated Virginia Tech for the first time in 15 years that season, earning a New Year's Six Bowl appearance against Florida in the Capital One Orange Bowl, the program's first-ever New Year's Day Six Bowl Game. Virginia finished the year ranked No. 25 in the final Coaches Poll and set a school record with 449 points scored.

• Furthermore, the 2019 team had 10 players named to the ACC All-Academic team, the most in program history, while linebacker Jordan Mack was named the ACC's Jim Tatum Award winner as the league's top football scholar-athlete.

Note: Bronco Mendenhall has led 16 of his 18 teams (88.9%) to bowl eligibility, which ranks third among active FBS head coaches.

• In his season second in 2017, he led the team to a 6-6 record and its first bowl game since 2011. That year, linebacker Micah Kiser won the National Football Foundation's William B. Campbell Trophy as the nation's top football scholar-athlete.

•The following year, Virginia posted an 8-5 record and its first bowl win since 2005 as it posted a 28-0 victory against South Carolina in the 2018 Belk Bowl

• After posting a 5-5 record in the COVID-shortened 2020 season, Virginia posted a 6-6 record in 2021 and qualified for its fifth-straight bowl game. That team finished the season ranking third in the nation with 515.8 yards per game and third nationally with 396.2 passing yards, both of which set school records.

• Before he arrived in Charlottesville, Virginia football had not had a winning season in five years.

• Following the 2021 campaign at Virginia, Mendenhall took a two-year hiatus from coaching before returning to the Mountain West as the head coach at New Mexico.

• After a two-year stint as BYU's defensive coordinator, Mendenhall was named head coach in 2005. In his first season at the helm of the Cougars, Mendenhall led BYU to a 6-6 record, returning the program to a bowl game for the first time since 2001.

• In 2006 and 2007, BYU went 11-2 each season and a perfect 8-0 in the MW, finishing the 2006 season ranked No. 15 in the final Associated Press Poll and No. 16 in the final Coaches Poll. In 2006, Mendenhall was named MW Coach of the Year and the Region 5 Coach of the Year by the AFCA and was one of nine finalists for the prestigious Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award.

• In 2007, BYU finished 14th in both polls, its highest finish since 1996, and concluded the season as the nation's 10th-ranked defense as it allowed 16 or fewer points in eight of the team's 13 games.

•The 2008 Cougars again won double-digit games, going 10-3, and Mendenhall became the first Cougar coach to ever go unbeaten at home over three consecutive seasons. BYU opened the season 6-0 to run its winning streak to 16 straight, moving as high as No. 7 in the polls. Additionally, three Cougars earned Academic All-America honors, a program first.

•The following season in 2009, BYU went 11-2 and 7-1 in the MW, including a 3-1 record against nationally ranked foes. The Cougars earned a season-opening 14-13 neutral site win over No. 3 Oklahoma. Once again, BYU excelled on the field and in the classroom as two more Cougars earned Academic All-America honors and tight end Dennis Pitta was voted a consensus All-American as he broke the NCAA record for most career receiving yards by a tight end.

• BYU finished No. 12 in the final 2009 polls, earning the distinction of being one of only six programs nationally ranked in both final polls for four straight seasons.

• In 2010, Mendenhall took over as defensive coordinator after a 2-5 start and BYU won five of its final six games, including a 52-24 thrashing of UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

• Mendenhall led the Cougars into the uncharted territory of football independence from 2011-15, starting with another double-digit win season in 2011 as BYU went 10-3, winning a third-straight bowl game. The Cougars, who ranked 22nd nationally in points allowed per game at 20.4, finished the season ranked No. 25 in the Coaches Poll, giving BYU five seasons under Mendenhall in the final rankings.

•The Cougars reeled off three straight 8-5 seasons from 2013 to 2015 under challenging schedules that saw BYU beat No. 15 Texas (40-21 and 41-7), Boise State (37-20), Georgia Tech (38-20 and 41-17), Cal (42-35) and Washington State (30-6).

• In 2012, BYU finished the year ranked No. 3 in total defense, allowing just 266.1 yards per game, and won a program-best fourth consecutive bowl game.

• In 2015, his final season with the Cougars, Mendenhall led BYU to a 9-3 record that included wins over No. 20 Boise State (35-24) and a season-opening win at Nebraska 33-28.

• Under Mendenhall, BYU tied for seventh among all FBS programs for the most Academic All-American recipients and led all FBS programs with the most selections (39) to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society, which recognizes players for achieving a 3.2 or better GPA during their careers.

•The Alpine, Utah, native got his coaching start at Oregon State as a graduate assistant after finishing a two-year playing career as a defensive back in 1986 and 1987. He moved to the junior college ranks with the highly successful Snow College program, serving as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 1991 and 1992. He then spent two years at Northern Arizona (one as co-defensive coordinator) before returning to Oregon State in 1995 as a defensive line coach. He served as the Beavers' defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 1996.

• After a season at Louisiana Tech in 1997, he went to New Mexico as defensive coordinator, coaching five seasons from 1998-2002. UNM's defense excelled under Mendenhall, earning a quick reputation as a hard-nosed, hard-hitting unit led by All-American safety and NFL Hall of Famer Brian Urlacher, whom Mendenhall served as position coach for two seasons.

• After leaving New Mexico in 2002, Mendenhall spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at BYU before being elevated to the head coaching position in 2005.

• A Utah local, Mendenhall graduated from American Fork High School. He began his collegiate playing career at Snow College, where he was an All-American and team captain during the 1985 NJCAA National Championship season. From there, he played safety for Oregon State and served as captain his senior season before joining the staff as a graduate assistant.

• Mendenhall and his wife, Holly, have three sons: Cutter, Breaker and Raeder.

• Nick Howell is in his first season as Utah State's defensive coordinator and safeties coach. The 2025 season will be his 13th consecutive as an FBS defensive coordinator as he has served in the same role in the Mountain West, Atlantic Coast Conference, and the Southeastern Conference.

• Howell has been part of 13 bowl eligible teams, including one conference championship and one divisional title. The 2025 season will be his 17th working for head coach Bronco Mendenhall.

• Howell came to Utah State after spending the 2024 season as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico. He helped the Lobos to a 5-7 record, marking the program's most wins in eight years. Their season was highlighted by a 38-35 victory against No. 19 Washington State, snapping a 26-game losing streak against nationally ranked teams. The UNM victory was its first win over a top-20 team since 1994 and its first non-conference win against a top-20 opponent since 1940.

• As New Mexico's defensive coordinator, Howell mentored three defenders that earned All-Mountain West honors, including safety Christian Ellis garnering honorable mention accolades, and the team ranked third in the conference and 29th in the nation with two defensive touchdowns.

• Before New Mexico, Howell spent the previous two seasons (2022-23) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Vanderbilt. In 2023, the Commodores led the SEC with 12 interceptions and were fourth in defensive touchdowns. His debut Commodore defense capitalized on opportunities, scoring four defensive touchdowns. That total led the SEC and ranked 12th nationally. It was a marked improvement after a 2021 campaign that saw Vandy fail to record a defensive score.

• Howell also served as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Virginia for six seasons (2016-21), where he helped lead the Cavaliers to bowl eligibility in each of its final five seasons, including the 2019 team that played in the ACC Championship Game and earned an Orange Bowl berth.

• The 2021 season saw the Cavaliers earn a Fenway Bowl berth (canceled due to COVID-19) while Howell's defense stepped up when it mattered most. Virginia finished third in the ACC and 28th nationally in red zone defense.

• In 2019, Virginia had a season to remember. The Cavaliers set a program record with 46 sacks en route to the ACC Championship game and Orange Bowl. The defense also led the ACC with three defensive touchdowns. UVA finished the season ranked No. 24 in the final College Football Playoff poll and No. 25 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. It was UVA's first string of three-straight bowl appearances since UVA went to four bowl games between 2002 and 2005.

• In 2018, Virginia finished among the nation's top 20 in opponent passing efficiency (12th), passing yards allowed (16th), team defense (20th) and scoring defense (20th). The season culminated in a 28-0 victory over South Carolina in the Belk Bowl, marking the first time a non-SEC team recorded a shutout of an SEC team since 1975. Bryce Hall led the nation with 22 breakups and 24 passes defended, earning All-America honors from five outlets. Juan Thornhill posted the best opponent passer rating when in coverage among ACC safeties and joined Hall in earning first team All-ACC accolades.

• His 2017 defense included a secondary ranked seventh in the nation and second in the ACC against the pass. Quin Blanding capped the season as UVA's all-time leader with 495 career tackles, the most ever by an ACC defensive back.

• Before his time at Virginia, Howell spent nine seasons in various positions at BYU, starting as a defensive intern before eventually moving up to defensive coordinator. At BYU, he helped the Cougars to nine-straight eight-plus win seasons, including four 10-win campaigns and two 11-win seasons. • His 2013 debut season as defensive coordinator at BYU saw the Cougars finish 12th nationally in yards per play, 16th in pass efficiency defense and 22nd in scoring defense, despite having to defend the fourth-most plays in the nation due to BYU's up-tempo offense. That year, he was a candidate for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

• Shane Hunter is in his first year as Utah State's special teams coordinator and linebackers coach. Hunter, who is entering his 11th season working with head coach Bronco Mendenhall, has been part of seven bowl eligible teams and one divisional title team.

• In his five previous coaching stops, Hunter has served as both a special teams and defensive coordinator and has coached every defensive position. He brings 14 years of collegiate coaching experience to USU, including four years as a coordinator.

• Hunter came to Utah State after spending the 2024 season as the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at New Mexico. He helped the Lobos to a 5-7 record, marking the program's most wins in eight years. Their season was highlighted by a 38-35 victory against No. 19 Washington State, snapping a 26-game losing streak against nationally ranked teams. The UNM victory was its first win over a top-20 team since 1994 and its first non-conference win against a top-20 opponent since 1940.

• New Mexico's special teams achieved remarkable success in his one season on staff. Known for its innovation, UNM led the nation for successful two-point plays with five, boosting the program's national Special Teams Efficiency ranking by 20 spots from the previous season. UNM's punt return unit also improved 87 spots from No. 132 in 2023 to No. 45 in 2024 and the Lobos had its first punt return for a touchdown in three years. Furthermore, the punt unit (+16), kickoff return unit (+15) and field goal unit (+3) all saw improvement in 2024.

• At New Mexico, Hunter helped mentor three defenders who earned All-Mountain West honors as the team ranked third in the conference and 29th in the nation with two defensive touchdowns. UNM also added one special teams touchdown.

• Before New Mexico, Hunter spent two seasons as the co-defensive coordinator at Utah Tech as he coached the safeties in 2023 and the cornerbacks in 2022. He coached three All-United Athletic Conference players in 2023, and his 2022 defense had three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference picks.

• Hunter also spent six seasons with Mendenhall at Virginia, the first five as inside linebackers coach and the 2021 season as safeties coach.

• In his only season as safeties coach, hybrid safety/corner Anthony Johnson picked off a team-high-tying three passes and ranked third on the team with five pass breakups as Virginia's defense recorded a pair of shutouts against William & Mary and Duke.

• In 2020, two of Hunter's inside linebackers earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) honors as Nick Jackson took home third-team accolades, and Zane Zandier was named honorable mention for the second year in a row. Jackson was No. 2 in the ACC and No. 16 in the nation with 10.5 tackles per game.

• The 2019 season was special in Charlottesville as the Cavaliers won the ACC Coastal Division for the first time and made their first appearance in the ACC Championship Game. UVA appeared in its first New Year's Six bowl game, the Orange Bowl, and finished No. 24 in the final College Football Playoff poll and No. 25 in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. It was UVA's first string of three-straight bowl appearances since it went to four bowl games between 2002 and 2005.

• Despite losing multiple starters on the defensive side of the ball for the season, Virginia set the program record for sacks in a season with 46 in 2019, which ranked No. 6 in the nation. In all, linebackers tallied 27 of UVA's 46 sacks, including 13 by Hunter's inside linebackers. UVA also was No. 22 in the nation in tackles for loss, which included 22.5 from the inside linebackers.

• Jordan Mack, the ACC's Jim Tatum Award winner as the league's Scholar-Athlete of the Year, also became Hunter's second Campbell Trophy (Academic Heisman) finalist at UVA, including 2017 winner Micah Kiser.

• Hunter's inside linebacker group assisted with Virginia finishing the 2018 season 12th in the nation in team passing efficiency defense (107.62), 16th in passing yards allowed (183.0), 20th in team defense (330.5), and 20th in scoring defense (20.1). UVA's 28-0 drubbing of South Carolina in the 2018 Belk Bowl was the first time an SEC team was shut out in a bowl by a non-SEC squad since the 1975 Gator Bowl.

• In 2017, Hunter oversaw a tremendous senior season for inside linebacker Kiser, who was named the Campbell Trophy winner and led the ACC in tackles for the third year in a row. Kiser was also a three-time first-team All-ACC honoree and received multiple All-America honors. Kiser's 145 tackles in 2017 rank No. 2 all-time on UVA's single-season ledger.

• Before his time at Virginia, Hunter spent three seasons (2013-15) at his alma mater, BYU, as a graduate assistant, working with the defensive front seven and special teams. The Cougars played in three-straight bowl games and went 25-14 during his time in Provo, including ranked wins over Texas and Boise State. While working with the defense, BYU recorded 68 takeaways (43 interceptions and 25 fumble recoveries) over 39 games.

• Hunter began his coaching career at Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, as he was the defensive line coach for two seasons (2011-12) and served as special teams coordinator in 2012. The 2012 Badgers went 11-1 and excelled in special teams. Three punters averaged over 40 yards per kick.

• Hunter played two seasons (2003 and 2007) at Snow College, before moving to BYU, where he was a middle linebacker for three years (2008-10). During his senior season in 2010, he recorded 85 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, one forced fumble, and one fumble recovery as he started all 13 games and earned honorable mention All-Mountain West honors. He was named to the Academic All-MW team and was a member of the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society.

• Hunter earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from BYU in 2011 and his master's in public administration in 2016. He and his wife Carrie have four children: daughters Halle, Maizy and Grace; and son Hudson.

MARIO ACITELLI

- Run Game Coordinator / Offensive Line
- Appalachian State, 2010
- 16th Year as a Collegiate Coach
- First Year at Utah State

• Mario Acitelli (Ack-eh-tell-ee) is in his first season as Utah State's run game coordinator and offensive line coach. He has been part of seven postseason teams. The 2025 campaign will be his 16th as a collegiate coach, and he has mentored seven players who have played in the NFL.

• Acitelli has coached in five bowl games and three FCS Playoffs and has been part of one conference championship team.

• Acitelli came to Utah State after spending the past three seasons (2022-24) as the offensive line coach at William & Mary, including serving as the offensive coordinator this past season.

• In 2024, Acitelli's unit helped the Tribe rank fourth nationally in rushing at 232.8 yards per game and 24th in total offense at 413.2 yards per game. Acitelli coached a pair of offensive linemen who earned postseason honors in Charles Grant and Ryan McKenna, as both earned Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) accolades. Grant was also named a first-team All-American by seven different publications and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, which is annually presented to the national offensive player of the year in Division I FCS college football.

• Grant and McKenna both garnered postseason honors following the 2023 season under Acitelli as the Tribe ranked 13th nationally and third in the CAA in rushing at 196.9 yards per game. In 2023, Grant was named to four separate All-America teams, while McKenna earned honorable mention All-CAA accolades.

• Grant was the nation's first player to accept an invitation to play in the 2025 Reese's Senior Bowl. He was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft with the 99th overall pick by the Las Vegas Raiders.

• William & Mary's offensive line was a dominant force in the record-breaking 2022 season under Acitelli, marking the best statistical performance by an offensive line in school history. The Tribe ranked first nationally in sacks allowed (0.64 pg), second in explosive runs (97), third in rushing (274.0 ypg), third in yards per carry (6.3), and sixth in rushing yards before contact (1,307). The Tribe also recorded 35 rushing touchdowns, marking the third-most in school history. They averaged 448.8 total yards and 33.5 points per game, which rank fourth and fifth, respectively, on the program's all-time single-season list.

• That success helped propel William & Mary to new heights as the Tribe equaled a school record with 11 victories, won a share of the CAA title and advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals.

• Acitelli impacted the development of one of the nation's top linemen Colby Sorsdal, who was a consensus All-America selection and garnered an invite to the prestigious East-West Shrine Bowl before being selected by the Detroit Lions in the fifth round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

• Acitelli served as the lead offensive analyst and interim running backs coach at LSU in 2021. With the Tigers, he helped Ty Davis-Price set the school record for rushing yards with 287 against Florida. Davis-Price was selected in the third round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

• Before William & Mary, Acitelli spent the 2020-21 season at Elon as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. Acitelli's special teams were strong in his first season as the Phoenix ranked 18th in the country in net punting, 20th in kick return defense and 29th in punt return defense. Elon was also second in the CAA in net punting and punt return average, third in kickoff return average and fourth in kickoff return defense. Individually, punter Hunter Stephenson was 12th nationally in punting average and was named first team All-CAA.

• Acitelli joined Elon after spending the 2019 season in the Atlantic Coast Conference at North Carolina. As a special teams analyst for the Tar Heels, Acitelli helped UNC block three kicks, which tied for 14th in the nation.

• Acitelli spent the previous five seasons (2014-18) at William & Mary as the team's tight ends and fullbacks coach and added special teams coordinator to his role his last two years.

• During his first stint at William & Mary, Acitelli coached wide receiver Devonte Dedmon, who garnered CAA Special Teams Player of the Year honors in 2015. Under Acitelli, the team's tight ends and fullbacks combined for eight All-CAA recognitions in five years. Highlighting those honorees was three-time All-CAA tight end Andrew Caskin, who earned a rookie camp invite with the Arizona Cardinals in 2018. In 2018, sophomore tight end Nick Muse set school records for receptions per game, yards per game and yards per catch by a tight end.

• In addition to his tight end success, fullbacks – Andrew Weidinger, Darnell Laws and Tyler Crist – earned all-league accolades.

• Acitelli joined William & Mary in 2014 after serving as a graduate assistant at Texas for the previous three seasons (2011-13). Before Texas, Acitelli served as a student assistant at his alma mater, Appalachian State, in 2010.

• A four-year starter, All-American and team captain at Appalachian State, Acitelli was a member of the 2006 and 2007 FCS National Championship teams. In 2009, he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy, awarded to the Southern Conference's top offensive lineman. A highlight of Acitelli's career came during the 2007 season as a member of the Mountaineer program that upset No. 5 Michigan in Ann Arbor.

• Acitelli earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Appalachian State in 2010 and a master's degree in advertising from Texas in 2013. A native of Charlotte, North Carolina, Acitelli attended Charlotte Catholic High School and he was inducted into their Athletics Hall of Fame in 2018. Acitelli is married to the former Sara Cline. The couple have two children, Leona and Graydon.

Career Highs- Tackles: 1, at Washington State (11/9/24).

Junior QB Bryson Barnes (16) was 11-of-21 passing for 198 yards with two touchdowns and one interception in Utah State's 36-14 home win against Robert Morris. Barnes also rushed for a career-high 88 yards on five carries with another score.

LOGAN, Utah- Utah State amassed 646 yards of total offense and shutout Robert Morris in the second half en route to a 36-14 season-opening home win at Maverik Stadium on Saturday, Aug. 31, 2024.

Trailing 14-10 at the break, Utah State scored 26 unanswered points in the final 30 minutes as it had 376 yards in the second half.

Utah State began the game with back-to-back interceptions on offense before graduate senior WR Kyrese White broke loose for a 57-yard touchdown to start the scoring late in the first quarter. Following an RMU answer on the ensuing drive, the Aggies moved back into the red zone to set up a 36-yard field goal from graduate senior PK Elliott Nimrod to retake the lead.

Utah State's next drive stalled, however, after graduate senior QB Spencer Petras exited with an injury. Petras ended the game with 145 yards on 10-of-15 passing with one touchdown and two interceptions. Following Petras' exit, the Colonials captured the momentum with a touchdown late in the second quarter to claim a 14-10 halftime lead.

Coming out of intermission, Utah State asserted itself over the final 30 minutes, holding Robert Morris scoreless and to only 115 yards of total offense. White again led the Aggies, this time taking a swing pass 53 yards for the score to give USU the lead for good. Nimrod connected on another field goal, a career-long 50-yarder, to push the lead to 20-14.

On the next possession with RMU driving to begin the fourth quarter, junior S Ike Larsen made his presence known, picking off the third-down pass to deliver the ball back to the Aggie offense. It was Larsen's second possession-switching play of the night after recording a fourth-down stop in the first half.

On the second play of USU's ensuing drive, junior QB Bryson Barnes took off up the middle, breaking loose for a career-long 63-yard touchdown scamper to firmly put the Aggies in the driver's seat.

Utah State continued to take control, forcing a three-and-out to immediately regain possession. Junior RB Robert Briggs Jr. then broke through the defense for a 55-yard run before being forced out. Briggs also suffered a leg injury on the play and had to be carted off the field. USU's momentum persisted, however, as Barnes connected with senior WR Jalen Royals for a 21-yard strike to push the advantage to 33-14. Nimrod connected on a 42-yard field goal on Utah State's final drive to account for the final tally.

The Aggie attack was equally effective through the air as on the ground as the offense totaled 343 passing yards alongside 303 rushing yards. Barnes finished with a line of 11-for-21 passing for 198 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. He also tied for the team lead in rushing alongside Briggs as the pair each finished with 88 yards on five and nine attempts, respectively. Senior RB Rahsul Faison added 12 carries for 78 yards, while freshman Herschel Turner Jr. made his collegiate debut and gained 44 yards on four rushes. White led the Aggies in receiving with 131 yards on three catches, while Royals posted a team-high five catches for 77 yards.

A pair of newcomers led the Aggie defense as graduate senior ILB Jon Ross Maye and senior S Jordan Vincent each finished with 10 tackles. The Aggies also received a pair of sacks from senior DE Cian Slone and graduate senior DE Blaine Spires.

Graduate senior ILB Jon Ross Maye (1) had 10 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, against the Colonials.

Junior QB Bryson Barnes (16) was 18-of-27 passing for 103 yards in Utah State's 48-0 loss at No. 13 USC. Barnes also carried the ball five times for minus eight yards.

LOS ANGELES, Calif.- On the road against the 13th-ranked team in the nation, Utah State was unable to keep pace as USC showcased its prowess on both sides of the ball, resulting in a 48-0 defeat on Saturday, Sept. 7, 2024, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. It was the first time USU had been shutout since losing at No. 1 Alabama back in 2022, 55-0.

USC finished the game with 544 yards of total offense (295 passing, 249 rushing) as compared to just 190 total yards for the Aggies (103 passing, 87 rushing). USU was also just 2-of-11 on third down as compared to 6-of-10 for the Trojans.

After stiffening in the red zone and forcing a field goal on USC's opening drive of the game, the Aggies began marching down the field on their first possession as it moved into Trojan territory after a 17-yard rush from senior RB Rahsul Faison before the drive stalled.

Despite graduate P Stephen Kotsanlee pinning USC at the 12-yard line, the Trojans took eight plays to go 88 yards for the score to go up, 10-0.

The Aggies made several attempts to stage a comeback in the opening half, including a forced fumble in the red zone from redshirt junior CB DJ Graham II, which was then recovered by graduate ILB Clyde Washington. However, USU was unable to overcome an interception on a tipped pass and a failed fourth-down conversion as USC opened up a 27-0 halftime lead.

The Aggies advanced into USC territory on the opening drive of the third quarter and faced a 4th-and-12 from the Trojan 43-yard line. A well-timed blitz from USC doomed the fourth-down attempt, and the ensuing touchdown drive from USC further cemented the Trojans' control of the contest.

Freshman RB Herschel Turner Jr. reeled off a pair of 15- and 19-yard runs on USU's final drive of the game to move deep into Trojan territory, but a 52-yard field goal attempt from graduate PK Elliott Nimrod fell just short of putting the Aggies on the board.

Junior QB Bryson Barnes ended the game with 103 yards on 18-for-27 passing with one interception. Faison led the way on the ground for the Aggies with 54 yards on nine attempts, including a long rush of 20 yards, while Turner finished second on the team with 38 yards on a season-best eight carries.

Five different Aggies recorded two or more receptions as senior WR Jalen Royals posted a team-high 47 yards on six catches. Graduate TE Broc Lane added three catches for 27 yards, while Faison tied his career high with three receptions out of the backfield. Graduate WR Colby Bowman and fellow graduate WR Kyrese White each chipped in with two catches for seven and 15 yards, respectively.

Defensively, senior S Jordan Vincent again reached double-digit tackles with 11. Junior S Ike Larsen also had 11 tackles, which tied his career high, while adding a career-high-tying two pass breakups. Larsen also intercepted a pass in the second quarter and returned it into USC territory, but the play was called back due to an off-sides on the Aggies.

Redshirt junior ILB Jadon Pearson added a career-high seven tackles, while sophomore S Malik McConico had a career-high five tackles in his first career start.

Junior CB Avante Dickerson and redshirt junior ILB John Miller added one pass breakup each. Dickerson also added a tackle for loss, along with Washington.

Junior S Ike Larsen (6) tied his career highs with 11 tackles and two pass breakups against the Trojans.

Junior QB Bryson Barnes (16) was 16-of-31 passing for 223 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions in Utah State's 38-21 loss to No. 12 Utah.

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State football raced out to a 14-3 lead but could not hold off No. 12 Utah as the Utes claimed a 38-21 victory on Saturday, Sept. 14, 2024, at Maverik Stadium in the Battle of the Brothers.

In the first contest in the rivalry since 2015, and the first in Logan since USU claimed a 27-20 overtime victory in 2012, Utah State looked to replicate history in the early going. After a Utah field goal opened the scoring, the Aggies jumped in front via a 20-yard touchdown pass from junior QB Bryson Barnes to graduate senior TE Broc Lane, capping a 4-play, 77-yard drive. USU again took only four plays to hit paydirt on its next drive with junior WR Jack Hestera hauling in the 14-yard touchdown catch from Barnes to go up 14-3.

The Utes responded on the ensuing possession, trimming USU's lead to four points with a 11-yard TD pass from Isaac Wilson to Money Parks. USU's next possession ventured into Utah territory as the Aggies took eight plays to go 50 yards. The field goal attempt, however, was blocked. The Utes engineered another scoring drive ending in an 11-yard pass from Wilson, this time to Caleb Lohner, to give the visitors a 17-14 lead heading into halftime.

A pair of half-sacks from senior DT Miguel Jackson and junior DE Gabe Peterson thwarted Utah's opening drive of the third quarter, forcing the second field goal of the day from Cole Becker.

After an Aggie punt on its next possession, Utah scored a 3-yard touchdown run by Micah Bernard, pushing the lead to 28-14 following a two-point conversion.

Utah State converted two fourth-downs on its next drive, including a 31-yard pass from Barnes to graduate senior WR Colby Bowman on a 4th-and-1 near midfield. After senior RB Rahsul Faison converted a 4th-and-5 with a 17-yard run that was initially ruled a touchdown, Barnes scored on a 1-yard run to cap the 9-play, 63-yard drive and bring USU back within a single possession.

The Aggie defense then delivered on the second play of Utah's next drive as a tipped ball fell into the arms of senior S Jordan Vincent. Vincent, who tied for the team lead alongside graduate senior ILB Clyde Washington with 11 tackles, returned the interception 15 yards to set USU up at the Utes' 27-yard line. The Aggies' drive stalled, however, and graduate senior PK Elliott Nimrod's field goal missed wide left to keep the deficit at 28-21.

On the very next play, Utah's Bernard broke a 64-yard rush to enter the red zone. After USU's defense forced a fourth down attempt, Wilson found Carsen Ryan for the two-yard score to re-establish a two-score lead for the Utes. Becker then added his third field goal of the game to extend the lead to its final margin.

Barnes ended the game with a season-high 223 yards on 16-of-31 passing with two touchdowns and two interceptions against his former team. He also rushed for 36 yards on 11 attempts and a score.

Junior WR OttoTia posted a career-high five catches and for a career-best 78 yards, while senior WR Jalen Royals had four catches for 44 yards before exiting with an injury.

On the ground, Faison led the way with his third career 100-yard game, ending with 115 yards on 19 carries.

As a team, the Aggies set a new season-high with eight tackles for loss as 10 players recorded a TFL on the day.

Utah State finished the game with 385 yards of total offense (245 passing, 140 rushing) as compared to 460 total yards for Utah (239 passing, 221 rushing). The Utes also had a 37:18 to 22:42 advantage in time of possession.

Senior S Jordan Vincent (24) had 11 tackles and an interception against the Utes.

Graduate QB Spencer Petras (7) was 26-of-44 passing for 293 yards with two touchdowns and one interception in Utah State's 45-29 loss at Temple.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. - Graduate QB Spencer Petras was 26-of-44 passing for a career-high 293 yards with two touchdowns in Utah State's 45-29 loss at Temple on Saturday, Sept. 21, 2024, at Lincoln Financial Field.

The Aggies were in complete control of the contest midway through the second quarter, as the defense registered a trio of 3-and-outs on Temple's first four drives while the Utah State offense found its rhythm en route to 300 yards in the first half.

Freshman RB Herschel Turner recorded his first career touchdown on a 4-yard run early in the second quarter for the first points of the game. Turner finished the game with 32 rushing yards on six carries.

On USU's next drive, Petras found senior WR Jalen Royals for a 26-yard score to put the Aggies up 14-0. Royals finished the day with a career-high 10 receptions for 112 yards, which is his fifth-career 100-yard receiving game.

After Utah State generated its two-possession lead, the Temple offense awoke as Antonio Jones scored on a 32-yard rush before Antwain Littleton II tied the game on a 17-yard touchdown catch from Evan Simon.

On the Aggies' final drive of the first half, senior RB Rahsul Faison restored USU's lead with a 20-yard scamper, part of a season-high 148 yards on a career-high 27 attempts. The Owls did not relent, however, as Maddux Trujillo hit a 64-yard field goal as time expired to trim Utah State's halftime lead to 21-17.

USU began the second half much like the first, forcing a three-and-out and quickly marched deep into Temple territory on offense. A sack from the Owls then led to a missed field goal from graduate PK Elliott Nimrod. Three plays later, Temple's Simon found Dante Wright for a 91-yard touchdown to give Temple the lead for good as Simon threw another two touchdowns to begin the fourth quarter and put the home side up, 38-21.

The Aggies attempted a comeback on the ensuing possession, taking only four plays to go 75 yards as Petras found junior WR Jack Hestera for a 28-yard touchdown. Petras then found graduate WR Kyrese White for the 2-point conversion to bring USU within nine points. The following onside kick attempt was recovered by Temple, however, leading to a one-yard touchdown keeper from Simon to fully ice the game. White finished the game with a career-high eight receptions for 96 yards.

Petras, who tied his career high with 26 completions, had one interception on the day.

Senior S Jordan Vincent recorded double-digit tackles for the fourth consecutive games, ending with 11 stops. Senior DT Miguel Jackson recorded USU's lone sack of the contest, while graduate DE Blaine Spires, graduate CB Jaiden Francois and graduate S Torren Union also had 1.0 tackles for loss apiece.

Junior CB DJ Graham II forced one fumble, USU's second forced fumble of the season, which was recovered by the Owls. Junior CB Avante Dickerson and junior S Simeon Harris each had one pass breakup for the Aggies.

Utah State outgained Temple, 479-451, and had 26 first downs to the Owls' 20. The Aggies went 6-for-15 on third down, and 1-for-2 on fourth down, while the Owls converted 10-of-16 third down attempts. The Aggies also went 2-for-4 in the red zone while Temple registered four scores on four red zone attempts.

Junior DE Lawrence Falatea made his first-career start, while Graham made his first start as an Aggie.

Senior S Jordan Vincent (24) had 11 tackles against the Owls.

Senior WR Jalen Royals (1) had nine receptions for a career-high 211 yards and two touchdowns (59, 75) in Utah State's 62-30 Mountain West loss at No 21 Boise State.

BOISE, Idaho - Career performances from graduate QB Spencer Petras and senior WR Jalen Royals were not enough as Utah State fell to No. 21 Boise State 62-30 in both team's Mountain West opener at Albertsons Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 5, 2024.

The duo of Petras and Royals connected nine times on the evening for a combined 211 yards and two touchdowns, including a 75-yarder midway though the second quarter, the longest passing play of Petras' career and the longest reception of Royals' career.

Petras finished the night with a career-best 372 passing yards on 27-of-41, while throwing three touchdowns with no interceptions. His 27 completions are also a career high. Royals' 211 receiving yards are not only a career-high, but it is his first-career 200-yard receiving game. In fact, those 211 receiving yards are tied for the 11th-most in a single-game in school history.

Senior RB Rahsul Faison finished the night with 109 yards on 26 carries for his third-straight 100-yard rushing game of the season. In fact, Faison is the first Aggie since 2012 to post three-straight 100-yard rushing games.

Utah State also accomplished a rare feat of having a 300-yard passer, 200-yard receiver and 100-yard rusher in the same game for just the sixth time in school history and for the first time since 2001.

Despite compiling 507 yards of total offense, including 372 through the air and 135 on the ground, and scoring the most points since the team's season opener against Robert Morris, Utah State was unable to keep pace with the high-powered Bronco offense.

Boise State scored on its first play from scrimmage, a 63-yard touchdown run by Ashton Jeanty. After countering with a 36-yard field goal from redshirt freshman PK Tanner Cragun, the first of his career, BSU struck again with 4:08 left in the first quarter to make it 14-3.

The Aggies pulled back within a score just 30 seconds into the second quarter when Petras hit Royals on a 59-yard connection to make it 14-10.

However, three-straight Bronco touchdowns including two more by Jeanty, blew the game open at 35-10. With 5:29 left in the second quarter, a two-play, 35-second drive resulted in a 75-yard touchdown pass from Petras to Royals, but Boise State was able to tack on two more touchdowns before the half to make it 49-17 at the break.

In the third quarter, the Aggie defense limited Boise State to just six points on a pair of field goals and USU's offense was able to stack back-to-back touchdowns. A six-yard pass by Petras found junior WR Otto Tia in the end zone for the first touchdown of his career to cap a 10-play, 77-yard drive. Then, an interception by redshirt junior CB DJ Graham II in the closing seconds of the third quarter set up another touchdown drive for Utah State, this time a six-play, 43-yard drive resulting in an eight-yard touchdown run by Faison to cut the lead to 55-30. The final touchdown of the night belonged to Boise State, scoring with 11:08 remaining in the fourth.

Seven different Aggies had receptions in the game, including six catches for 59 yards by graduate WR Kyrese White and a career-best 40 yards on a career-high five receptions by sophomore WR Grant Page.

Defensively, Utah State allowed 599 yards, including 303 through the air and 296 on the ground. Twenty-three different players recorded at least one tackle for USU, led by 10 stops from junior S Ike Larsen, who also recorded one tackle for a loss.

Junior S Ike Larsen (6) had 10 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, against the Broncos.

Graduate QB Spencer Petras (7) was 41-of-59 passing for 461 yards with three touchdowns and three interceptions in Utah State's 50-34 Mountain West home loss to UNLV.

LOGAN, Utah - Graduate QB Spencer Petras set school and career records with 41 completions and 59 attempts, and set a new career-high with 461 passing yards, but the Rebel rushing attack was too much to overcome as Utah State lost to UNLV 50-34 on its Homecoming night at Maverik Stadium on Friday, Oct. 11, 2024.

Utah State also set two school records in the game as this was the first time ever that it had two players with 10-plus catches and 150-plus receiving yards in the same game.

Petras, who finished the game with a career-high-tying three touchdowns and three interceptions, tied the FBS single game record for completions this year, while his 461 passing yards are the second-most at the FBS level this season and the fifth-most in school history.

The Aggies outgained the Rebels, 584-546, and accrued 32 first downs to UNLV's 25. However, four USU turnovers led to 20 points for the Rebels. UNLV had zero turnovers.

UNLV went 75 yards in four plays on the opening drive of the game, culminating in a five-yard rushing touchdown. After the Utah State defense forced a stop on UNLV's next possession, the Rebels turned to the air on their next chance with the ball, resulting in an 18-yard touchdown pass to go up 14-0. The Aggie offense answered with an 11-play, 79-yard drive as senior RB Rahsul Faison capped the series with a 20-yard touchdown run.

UNLV broke the game open in the second quarter, outscoring the Aggies 27-0 as USU turned the ball over twice in the quarter and failed on a fourth-down conversion as the Rebels took advantage to build a 41-7 halftime lead.

Utah State took the opening drive of the second half 66 yards in eight plays and scored on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Petras to junior WR Jack Hestera. UNLV responded on their next possession with a 29-yard touchdown run, which was the final time the Rebels found the end zone in the contest. Hestera finished the game with a career-high 10 receptions for a career-best 152 yards and one touchdown.

Utah State continued humming offensively on the next drive with Petras throwing a 13-yard scoring strike to senior WR Jalen Royals. With the touchdown, Royals moved to fifth all-time in school history with 20 career touchdown receptions. He had a career-high-tying 10 receptions for 155 yards in the game.

The Aggies continued to eat into the deficit into the fourth quarter as Petras orchestrated another touchdown drive, this time going 67 yards in eight plays as he found graduate TE Broc Lane for the six-yard touchdown to make the score 47-28. After forcing another stop, USU quickly moved deep within Rebel territory and looked to cut the lead further before a tipped pass led to an interception, which led to a 36-yard UNLV field goal.

Utah State's final touchdown of the game came on a three-yard run from freshman RB HerschelTurner Jr. to bring the game back within two possessions at 50-34. Utah State's two-point conversion was unsuccessful, however, as was the ensuing onside kick, allowing UNLV to kneel out the final seconds.

Faison led USU with 83 yards on 15 carries and one touchdown.

Defensively, USU recorded a season-high four sacks, with senior DE Cian Slone leading the way with a career-high 2.0 sacks. USU also tied its season-high with 8.0 tackles for loss.

Junior S Ike Larsen tied career highs with 11 tackles and two pass breakups. Redshirt senior S Omari Okeke had a career-high seven tackles, while junior DE Lawrence Falatea had a career-high six stops. Slone also tied his career-high with six tackles.

Junior S Ike Larsen (6) tied his career-highs with 11 tackles and two pass breakups against the Rebels.

Senior WR Jalen Royals (1) had a career-high 11 receptions for 188 yards and one touchdown in Utah State's 50-45 Mountain West home loss to New Mexico.

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State topped 500 yards of offense for the third straight game and graduate QB Spencer Petras threw for 300 yards for the third time in as many weeks, but USU lost in a shootout to New Mexico 50-45 at Maverik Stadium on Saturday, Oct. 19, 2024.

Petras finished with 360 yards on 32-of-47 passing with two touchdowns, though an interception ended USU's attempt at a game-winning drive in the final minute. Petras is the first Aggie since Chuckie Keeton in 2012 to throw for 300 yards in three straight games.

The main beneficiary of Petras' passing was senior WR Jalen Royals, who recorded a career-high 11 receptions for 188 yards with one touchdown.

Utah State finished the game with 503 yards of offense, including 360 passing, while New Mexico had 552 yards, including 280 rushing and 272 passing.

Utah State opened the game with a flourish, outscoring the Lobos 14-0 in the first quarter and opening up a 17-0 lead early in the second frame.

After an interception from junior CB Avante Dickerson on the fourth play of the game, USU scored on a 1-yard quarterback sneak to put the Aggies on the board. USU forced a Lobo three-and-out and on the next possession and scored again on a 6-yard run by senior RB Rahsul Faison. Freshman PK Tanner Cragun then booted a 38-yard field goal to put USU up 17-0 on the first play of the second quarter.

A muffed punt at the USU 21-yard line allowed the Lobos to score their first points of the game on a 21-yard touchdown pass from Devon Dampier to Javen Jacobs. UNM then converted a two-play to make the score 17-8. UNM added a 14-yard touchdown pass from Dampier to Ryan Davis on its next possession to get with two points at 17-15.

Utah State responded with its longest drive of the season, going 74 yards in 16 plays as Petras found junior WR Otto Tia on a 4-yard pass to give USU a 24-15 lead at the half.

Utah State got the ball to start the second half and promptly scored on a 9-yard touchdown run by Faison. The Lobos refused to go quietly, however, as Dampier then scored on a 33-yard touchdown run.

Junior ILB Cole Joyce then recovered a muffed punt at UNM's 19-yard line and Petras found Royals on a 13-yard touchdown pass to put Utah State up by multiple scores.

The Lobos again responded, going 80 yards in eight plays, capped by a 15-yard run by Jacobs to make the score 38-29 after a failed two-point conversion. UNM scored again on its next drive to trim Utah State's lead to 38-36.

Freshman RB Herschel Turner Jr. scored on a 43-yard run on USU's next possession to give the home team a 45-36 lead. Dampier then scored on a 5-yard run to get the Lobos within 45-43.

Utah State was unable to pick up a first down on its next drive and was turned away on a fourth-and-one, giving UNM the ball at the USU 34-yard line. The Lobos scored five plays later to take its first lead of the game, 50-45.

Utah State's final drive ended on its second play as Petras was intercepted.

Dampier had 377 yards of total offense and accounted for four touchdowns for the Lobos.

Senior S Jordan Vincent led Utah State with a career-high-tying 12 tackles. Redshirt junior ILB John Miller had a career-high nine tackles, including a career-best 2.0 sacks and 3.0 tackles for loss.

Senior S Jordan Vincent (24) tied his career-high with 12 tackles against the Lobos.

Senior RB Rahsul Faison (3) had 174 all-purpose yards, including 131 rushing yards on 23 carries and one touchdown in Utah State's 27-25 Mountain West road win at Wyoming.

LARAMIE, Wyo. - Utah State's offense engineered a last-minute drive and redshirt freshman PK Tanner Cragun hit a 40-yard field goal with no time remaining as the Aggies won at Wyoming, 27-25, on Saturday, Oct. 26, 2024.

Utah State finished with 378 yards (230 passing, 148 rushing) as compared to a season-high 470 yards for Wyoming (276 rushing, 194 passing). However, the Cowboys had to settle for four field goals in the game, as USU stopped three UW drives in the red zone.

The Aggies scored on its first possession of the game as graduate QB Spencer Petras hit junior WR Otto Tia on a flea flicker for a 36-yard touchdown. Petras finished with 194 yards on 25-of-39 passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions as the Aggie offense avoided a turnover for the first time this season. Tia was USU's leading receiver as he caught a career-high six passes for 76 yards and one touchdown.

The Cowboys would answer on their next two drives, scoring a 43-yard field goal and on an 11-yard run to give Wyoming a 10-7 lead.

In the final two minutes of the half, Utah State reclaimed momentum as Cragun booted a 30-yard field goal and senior S Jordan Vincent intercepted a pass at the UW 44-yard line to setup a late touchdown for USU. On the first play of the possession, a double-pass from sophomore WR Grant Page to senior RB Rahsul Faison went for 36 yards to put the Aggies in the red zone. Faison then took the next snap eight yards for the touchdown, putting Utah State up 17-10 just before halftime. Faison posted his fourth 100-yard game of the season as he carried the ball 23 times for 131 yards. He also had a career-high four receptions for 43 yards and finished the game with 174 all-purpose yards.

Wyoming pieced together two drives of over five minutes in the third quarter, though Utah State's defense stiffened in the red zone and held the Cowboys to a pair of field goals to preserve a 17-16 lead. UW then took the lead on a 54-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter, but failed on a two-point conversion attempt.

Playing from behind for the first time in the game, the Aggies immediately responded with a 7-play, 75-yard drive culminating in a 10-yard touchdown pass from Petras to graduate TE Josh Sterzer to retake a 24-22 lead.

Redshirt junior CB DJ Graham II thwarted Wyoming's next drive, forcing a fumble inside the UW 30-yard line that was recovered by junior DT Isaiah Bruce and returned 34 yards.

On Wyoming's next possession, USU's defense again stood strong in its own territory, forcing the Cowboys to settle for a 31-yard field goal to take a 25-24 lead.

With 1:57 on the clock at their own 25-yard line, Petras and the Aggie offense got to work piecing together a 12-play, 53-yard drive to setup Cragun's game-winning field goal. During the drive, USU converted a fourth-and-three as junior QB Bryson Barnes came in and rushed for six yards.

The walk-off field goal was the first for Utah State since Dominik Eberle hit a 30-yarder for a 37-35 win at Fresno State on Nov. 9, 2019.

Defensively, Vincent led Utah State with 11 tackles for his sixth double-digit tackle outing of the season, while adding one interception and a pass breakup in the end zone, that forced UW to settle for a field goal. Sophomore CB JD Drew tied his career high with seven tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, and senior DE Cian Slone tied his career high with 2.0 sacks. Junior S Ike Larsen added a career-high-tying two pass breakups.

Senior S Jordan Vincent (24) had 11 tackles, one interception and one pass breakup, against the Cowboys.

Freshman RB Herschel Turner Jr. (21) had 111 all-purpose yards, including 85 rushing yards on 16 carries, in Utah State's 49-28 loss at No. 20 Washington State.

PULLMAN, Wash. - No. 20 Washington State scored touchdowns on its first three drives and Utah State was unable to climb out of the early deficit, falling to the Cougars 49-28, on Saturday, Nov. 9, 2024, at Gesa Field.

The Aggies totaled 395 yards of offense, including 187 yards on the ground, but allowed 465 yards to Washington State. The Cougars held the ball for 32:45 and gained 27 first downs.

After a drive fizzled out on Utah State's opening possession, Washington State scored the first of three touchdowns on its first three possessions as Kyle Williams hauled in a 17-yard touchdown pass from John Mateer. On USU's ensuing drive, the Aggies marched 75 yards in 11 plays, earning four first downs before graduate QB Spencer Petras found junior WR Jack Hestera for a 3-yard score to tie the game at 7-7.

The Cougars pieced together another pair of methodical touchdown drives, going 85 yards in 12 plays and 75 yards in 10 plays to go up 21-7 midway through the second quarter. Utah State drove into Washington State territory late in the half before an interception thwarted the attempt to cut into the deficit.

The hosts continued to push their advantage to begin the second half as Wayshawn Parker took the first snap of the third quarter 75 yards for a touchdown. After another WSU drive ended in a touchdown, the Aggies continued to attempt a comeback late in the third quarter as junior QB Bryson Barnes finished off an 11-play, 75-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to make it 35-14. The Aggies forced a Cougar fumble on their next drive before a penalty wiped out the turnover, leading to another Cougar touchdown.

Utah State continued to fight with a 13-play, 70-yard drive culminating in a 12-yard touchdown pass from Petras to graduate WR Kyrese White. The Cougars, however, iced the game away on their next drive, draining over seven minutes off the clock before Mateer threw for his fourth touchdown of the night.

Sophomore RB Derrick Jameson scored on his lone rushing attempt of the game, which was also his first rush of the season, from 72 yards out on USU's final possession with less than a minute remaining, but Washington State recovered the ensuing onside kick attempt to end the contest.

Petras finished the game with 208 yards on 28-for-45 passing with two touchdowns and one interception. Sophomore WR Grant Page recorded a career-high seven catches for 54 yards to lead the Aggies, while White had 50 yards on six receptions with one score. Defensively, senior S Jordan Vincent led the Aggies with 11 tackles, his seventh game this season with double-digit stops. Redshirt junior ILB John Miller and sophomore CB JD Drew both added six tackles. Drew also forced one fumble in the contest.

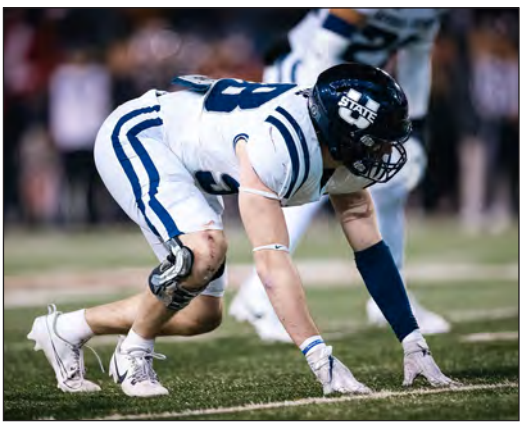
Sophomore ILB Bronson Olevao Jr. posted one sack to lead USU, while junior DT Isaiah Bruce and senior DE Cian Slone combined for a sack. Bruce and junior S Ike Larsen tied for the team lead with one pass breakup each, while Bruce added a forced fumble, as well.



Senior DE Cian Slone (98) had five tackles, including 0.5 sacks, against the Cougars.

The Aggie offense followed suit with their longest drive of the season, going 95 yards across 14 plays, including a conversion on 4th-and-1 by Barnes, who finished off the drive with a 2-yard touchdown pass to Sterzer to give Utah State a 24-0 lead. Vincent addeed another interception in the second quarter for USU.

Faison got the Aggies on the board in the third quarter as he scored on a 37-yard run, that was set up by a 44-yard punt return from redshirt junior WR Kahanu Davis. USU then forced its fourth takeaway of the day as sophomore CB JD Drew picked off another Hawai'i pass, setting up another 37-yard Faison touchdown run to put the Aggies up, 38-3. After the Aggie defense forced a punt, USU scored again, taking only 1:31 to go 65 yards in eight plays with Barnes finding sophomore WR Grant Page for the 8-yard score to give the Aggies a 14-13 lead entering halftime.

Utah State's momentum continued as it scored on the opening drive of the third quarter as Barnes found graduate TE Josh Sterzer for a 10-yard touchdown to finish off an eight-play, 75-yard drive. With the touchdown, USU scored 21 points in 5:55 of game time between the second and third quarter.

Utah State broke the game open early in the fourth quarter, finishing off a nine-play, 80-yard drive with Barnes again finding Page for a 6-yard score to go up 27-13. After several Aztec penalties thwarted SDSU's ensuing drive, Barnes broke free on USU's first play of its next drive for a 63-yard gain, ultimately setting up graduate WR Kyrese White for a 5-yard touchdown run to go up 34-13.

Utah State's defense forced another failed fourth-down attempt from San Diego State on the following drive. On the first play of its next series, Barnes connected with White on a 45-yard pass down the right sideline. Freshman RB Herschel Turner Jr. finished off the drive, scoring on a 1-yard plunge to make it 41 straight points from Utah State.

With the game well in hand, SDSU scored on its final drive to make the score 41-20.

Turner and senior RB Rahsul Faison each had 52 yards on 12 and nine carries, respectively. With his 52 yards, Faison eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards on the season, becoming the 16th running back in school history to do so.

The Utah State defense had a solid day as multiple Aggies recorded career-highs in tackles. Junior ILB Jadon Pearson (10), senior DE Cian Slone (9), junior DE Lawrence Falatea (6) and redshirt freshman CB Noah Flores (6) all set new career-highs, while graduate CB Jaiden Francois tied his career-high with nine tackles.

Pearson tied for the team lead in tackles alongside senior S Jordan Vincent (10), who recorded his eighth double-digit tackle game this season.

The Aggies recorded a season-high 13 tackles for loss as Falatea led the team with a career-high 2.5, while Joyce and Flores each recorded 2.0, both of which are career highs. Junior defensive end Marlin Dean added a career-high 1.5 sacks.

Senior DE Cian Slone (98) had a career-high nine tackles, which included 0.5 sacks and 1.5 tackles for loss, against the Aztecs.

Junior QB Bryson Barnes (16) had 374 yards of total offense and accounted for four touchdowns in Utah State's 42-37 Mountain West loss at Colorado State.

FORT COLLINS, Colo.- Junior QB Bryson Barnes accounted for 374 yards of total offense and four touchdowns, but Utah State allowed 29 unanswered fourth-quarter points as Colorado State rallied from 17 points down to post a 42-37 Mountain West win here Friday afternoon at Canvas Stadium.

Utah State (4-8, 3-4 MW) took a 30-13 lead with :49 to play in the third quarter following a 40-yard interception return for a touchdown from graduate CB Jaiden Francois. However, USU committed three fourth-quarter turnovers and the Rams (8-4, 6-1 MW) stormed back to post its first win in the series since 2017.

Utah State outgained the Rams, 485-454, and won the rushing yardage battle, 296-84. The Aggies also held CSU to 3-of-14 on third down, though the Rams were 3-of-3 on fourth-down.

Barnes was 17-of-29 passing for 189 yards with a season-high-tying three touchdowns and two interceptions and rushed for 185 yards and another scored on a career-high 24 attempts. In fact, Barnes is the first quarterback in school history to rush for 100 yards in consecutive games as he set the school record for rushing yards by a quarterback the previous week with 193 yards.

The Aggies took early control of the contest, scoring the game's first 13 points. After USU's first drive ended in a missed field goal, Barnes and the Aggie offense needed only six plays to go 76 yards, culminating in a 1-yard touchdown run for Barnes. USU then attempted a two-point conversion, but the pass was intercepted.

Following a three-and-out, USU took over in CSU territory and Barnes hit junior WR Otto Tia for a 2-yard touchdown to give the Aggies a 13-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. Tia finished the game with a career-high-tying six receptions for a career-best 81 yards and a career-high three touchdowns.

Both teams hit field goals on their first drives of the second quarter, with redshirt freshman PK Tanner Cragun connecting from 26 yards out to restore USU's 13-point lead. The Rams scored the final 10 points of the quarter, including a touchdown with :19 to play to make the score 16-13 at the half.

Utah State scored first in the third quarter via a 15-play, 79-yard drive that ran nearly six minutes off the clock as Barnes found Tia for a 14-yard touchdown.

On the first play of Colorado State's next drive, Francois extended Utah State's lead to 17 points at 30-13, picking off a pass originally tipped by sophomore CB JD Drew and returning it 40 yards for the pick-six.

From there, it was all Colorado State.

The Rams began their comeback with a touchdown drive to begin the fourth quarter, cutting the lead to nine points with a 12-yard pass from Brayden Fowler-Nicolosi to Vince Brown II and the two-point conversion. The Aggies drove deep into Ram territory on the next possession before a fumble thwarted the drive. The Rams quickly scored again to make the score 30-28. USU turned it over again on its next possession with an interception inside its own 20-yard line and the Rams scored three plays later to take their first lead of the game at 35-30.

Utah State turned it over on downs on its next possession inside its own 35-yard line, and CSU scored another touchdown to lead 42-30.

Utah State answered with 2-yard touchdown pass from Barnes to Tia to make the score 42-37. Junior S Ike Larsen recovered USU's ensuing onside kick attempt with 14 seconds remaining. On the first drive of USU's final drive, however, a Ram interception sealed the win for CSU.

Defensively, senior S Jordan Vincent finished with a career-high 15 tackles to lead the Aggies. Redshirt junior CB DJ Graham II led the Aggies with a career-high two pass breakups to go along with a career-high nine tackles.

Senior S Jordan Vincent (24) had a career-high 15 tackles against the Rams.

Utah State's 1946 football team played in the school's first-ever bowl as it lost to San Jose State, 20-0, in the Raisin Bowl played in Fresno, Calif., on Jan. 1, 1947. USU finished the 1946 season with a 7-2-1 record and shared the Skyline Conference Championship with a 4-1-1 league mark.

FRESNO, Calif. - A powerful San José State college grid team shut out Utah State 20-0 in the second annual Raisin Bowl.

San José State devastated the Aggies 16-7 in first downs, 177-74 in yards rushing, and 110-49 in yards passing.

Utah State's all-conference OC, Ralph Maughan, could not offset SJSU's HBs Bert Robinson and Babe Nomura. San José State did all of its scoring in the second and third quarters. Bill Schembel, a substitute halfback, passed to quarterback Bill Jackson for the opening touchdown, then took an aerial from Jackson for score number two. Bill Rhyne, another substitute halfback, crossed the goal line from a yard out to score the third touchdown.

Through the entire game, Utah State threatened to score twice, once in the first quarter when it reached the SJSU 1-yard line, and again at the end of the fourth quarter when the Aggies were within a yard of the goal. Both attempts were denied and Utah State was confined to its own territory throughout most of the game.

Utah State's 1947 football team made it back-to-back bowl appearances as it lost to Pacific 35-21 in the Lodi Grape Bowl. USU went 6-5-0 during the season and finished third in the Skyline Conference with a 3-3-0 record.

LODI, Calif. - All-American quarterback Eddie LeBaron led his Pacific Tigers onto victory, defeating the Utah State Aggies 35-21 in Lodi's inaugural Grape Bowl football game.

Only six minutes into the game, Pacific fullback Harry Kane scored on a 72-yard run. Utah State answered with a 70-yard drive to land on Pacific's 1-yard line. Right HB John Worley fumbled, allowing halfback Bruce Orvis to recover the ball and run it back 99 yards for Pacific's second score. Early in the second quarter, LeBaron scored on a quarterback sneak from the one, and then threw for a 14-yard touchdown pass to left end John Rohde a few minutes later. Sub halfback Wayne Hardin completed all five conversion attempts.

Utah State came back from halftime facing a 28-0 deficit. QBs John Caputo and John Sorensen helped the Aggies with two touchdowns, and in the final period, HB Ernie Groll intercepted a long pass by LeBaron on the Pacific 42 and ran it back for a pick-six. FB Buss Williams converted two of the three attempts.

Utah State ran up 15 first downs against the Pacific's 17. On the ground the Tigers gained 278 yards to the Aggies' 85.

The 1960 Utah State football team finished the season with a 9-2-0 record and won its first of two-straight co-Skyline Conference Championships.

EL PASO, TEXAS - New Mexico State, in winning its 15th-straight game, overcame Utah State 20-13 in a bruising Sun Bowl football battle. USU owned a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when HB Tom Larscheid ran for 13 yards and a touchdown. The score was set up with a 53-yard punt return by Ernie Reese, which set a Sun Bowl record.

New Mexico State answered right back in the second quarter. Quarterback Charley Johnson's 3-yard pitch to Pervis Atkins, along with Atkins' subsequent kick, tied the score.

USU then regained the lead by driving 80 yards in 15 plays with Dolph Camilli scoring from the 11. New Mexico State took the lead for the first time in the third quarter when Bob Gaiters ran for a 32-yard touchdown. Johnson led the offense by completing 18-of-26 passes, including two for touchdowns.

Utah State's final effort for victory was denied in the fourth quarter when FB Doug Mayberry was stopped short of a first down on a fourth-down play. New Mexico State then ran out the clock.

Johnson threw for 190 yards and was tabbed the Sun Bowl's MVP for the second-straight year. The NMSU defense held the nation's top offense to just 268 total yards.

Utah State's defense was equally as impressive. USU, led by future Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, held the NMSU offense to only 224 yards, including just 44 rushing yards on 32 carries.

The 1961 Utah State football team is the last team in school history to go undefeated during the regular season as the Aggies produced a 9-0-1 mark before losing to Baylor 24-9 in the Gotham Bowl played at the Polo Grounds in New York City. Tackle Merlin Olsen was a consensus, first-team All-America and won the 1961 Outland Trophy as the country's top lineman.

NEW YORK, N.Y. - Converting four-of-five fumble recoveries into three touchdowns provided Baylor with the win over previously-unbeaten Utah State 24-9.

Baylor's Ronnie Bull scored on a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Quarterback Don Trull contributed a 2-yard scoring plunge and a 39-yard touchdown pass to end Tom Plumb, and Carl Choate kicked all three conversions and added three points with his 22-yard field goal.

Utah State's first score came in the third quarter when Jim Turner kicked a 36-yard field goal. Midway through the final quarter, Ronnie Stanley's pass was intercepted by Utah State's Bob Novotny on the Baylor 16. In three plays, Utah State produced a touchdown with Bill Munson scoring from the four. An attempted conversion run failed.

Senior QB Anthony Calvillo (13) was named the MVP of the Las Vegas Bowl II as he was 25-of-39 passing for 286 yards and three touchdowns in leading Utah State to its first-ever bowl win with a 42-33 victory against Ball State. Calvillo also rushed for 50 yards on eight carries in the game.

LAS VEGAS, Nev.- Senior QB Anthony Calvillo tossed three touchdown passes and junior RB Profail Grier ran for two scores as Utah State defeated Ball State 42-33 in Las Vegas Bowl II on Dec. 17, 1993, marking the Aggies first bowl victory in their 96-year football history. For Utah State, it was just its fifth bowl game in school history and first since playing in the 1961 Gotham Bowl.

Utah State finished the game with 491 yards of total offense (205-rushing, 286-passing) as compared to 314 yards of total offense (73-rushing, 241-passing) for Ball State. USU recorded 27 first downs in the game and was 10-of-16 on third downs, while BSU had just 14 first downs and went 0-for-11 on third downs. USU also won the time of possession battle, 35:11 to 24:49.

Calvillo completed 25-of-39 passes for 286 yards to earn MVP honors. He also rushed for 50 yards on eight carries. Grier finished the game with 142 rushing yards on 33 carries, to go along with his two scores, and caught two passes for 32 yards. Senior WR Tony Jenkins had five catches for 94 yards as eight different Aggies caught passes in the game.

Utah State scored on its first two possessions with drives of 73 and 82 yards, respectively. Calvillo, who completed his first seven passes, hit senior WR Cotie McMahon from 22 yards out for the first score just 4:33 into the game. Eight minutes later, Grier reached the end zone on a 3-yard run, capping a 13-play, 82-yard drive that took 5:26 off the clock. With 24 seconds remaining in the first half, senior WR Aubrey Thompson scored on a 3-yard pass from Calvillo to make the halftime score 21-0 for USU. On its last drive of the half, USU went 68 yards in 17 plays and used 7:43. The Aggie offense rolled up 329 total yards in the first half and produced 18 first downs.

Ball State scored 10-straight points to open the third quarter on a 7-yard touchdown pass and a 31-yard field goal in the first three minutes, but Utah State got a 15-yard touchdown run from Grier and another touchdown pass from Calvillo, this time to senior WR Mike Lee for 16 yards. USU's first touchdown of the third quarter was a 12-play, 75-yard drive that took 5:24, while its second was just a three-play, 24-yard drive in 1:26.

Junior CB Donald Toomer iced the game when he returned an interception 32 yards for a score to give the Aggies a 42-19 lead with 11:34 left in the game. Toomer had two interceptions that he returned 39 yards.

Ball State scored the final 14 points of the game on a 2-yard run with 10:34 to play and a 2-yard pass with 5:07 remaining in the contest.

Senior CB Damon Smith and freshman LB David Gill led Utah State with eight tackles apiece, while senior LB Jermaine Younger had seven tackles and senior DE Scott Moala finished with six stops.

Utah State players celebrate their Las Vegas Bowl II win with head coach Charlie Weatherbie.

Senior WR Steve Smith (4) earned Utah State MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards, in Utah State's 35-19 loss to Cincinnati in the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl.

BOISE, Idaho - Utah State spotted Cincinnati a 28-point advantage before scoring 19 of the game's final 26 points as the Aggies fell 35-19 in the first Humanitarian Bowl on Dec. 29, 1997.

The Aggies suffered through their second-lowest offensive output of the season in both scoring (16 at Oregon State) and yardage (283 vs. New Mexico) in the game.

Utah State finished the game with just 316 yards of total offense (63-rushing, 253-passing) as compared to 411 total yards (225-rushing, 186-passing) for Cincinnati. The Bearcats also controlled the ball for 42:17 as they converted on 14-of-22 (.636) third downs, while USU had the ball for just 17:43 as it converted just 2-of-10 (.200) third downs. In all, Cincinnati ran 40 more plays (90-50) in the game as it averaged 4.6 yards per play as compared to 6.3 yards per play for USU.

Utah State did not practice outdoors until the two days prior to the game as the Aggies worked out in the USU fieldhouse for the month between the end of the regular season and the bowl game. That rustiness was evident as USU went scoreless in the first half as Cincinnati put up a 21-0 halftime advantage.

Cincinnati's first touchdown of the game was on a 14-yard pass from Chad Plummer to Cornelius Bonner with 4:03 to play in the first quarter. Bonner caught another 14-yard pass, this time from Deontey Kenner, just 48 seconds into the second quarter. The Bearcats' final touchdown of the first half was on a 1-yard run.

After Cincinnati extended its lead to 28-0 with 8:39 to play in the third quarter on a 15-yard run by Plummer, Utah State warmed up, scoring three touchdowns in an eight-minute span, but the Aggies were controlled by a bigger, stronger Cincinnati team. USU's first score came on a 75-yard pass from senior QB Matt Sauk to senior WR Steve Smith with 7:31 to play in the third quarter. USU scored again late in the third quarter on a 3-yard run by senior RB Melvin Blue, and its final touchdown of the day came with 14:18 to play in the game on a 10-yard fumble return by freshman LB Brent Passey.

Cincinnati's final touchdown of the game was with 2:28 to play in the third quarter on a 7-yard touchdown run by Orlando Smith to make the score 35-7, before USU scored the final 12 points of the game.

Smith earned USU MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards. The game was the final one for head coach John L. Smith, who had announced that he had taken the head coaching job at Louisville immediately after the final regular season game at North Texas.

Sauk was 12-of-30 passing for 253 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions. Kenner passed for 124 yards as he completed 10-of-16 passes with one touchdown. Plummer was selected as the Bearcats' MVP after rushing for 53 yards, passing for 62 yards and catching four passes for 64 more yards. Sophomore RB Demario Brown was the Aggies' top rusher as he carried the ball 12 times for 56 yards, and senior WR Nakia Jenkins added 80 receiving yards on four receptions.

Junior LB Tony D'Amato led Utah State with 12 tackles, while junior CB Johndale Carty and junior LB Craig Miller each posted nine stops.

Junior ILB Tony D'Amato (46) had a game-high 12 tackles, including one for loss, against the Bearcats.

Senior RB Michael Smith (20) rushed for a career-high 157 yards on just 12 carries and scored two touchdowns in Utah State's 24-23 loss to Ohio in the 2011 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Smith, who added one reception for 10 yards, was named Utah State's MVP.

BOISE, Idaho - In a season full of close finishes, the outcome of the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl was no different for Utah State (7-6, 5-3 WAC) as Ohio scored with 13 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to earn a 24-23 win against the Aggies on Dec. 17, 2011, at Bronco Stadium.

After much deliberation on the two plays earlier to get to the goal line, Ohio quarterback Tyler Tettleton scored on a 1-yard touchdown run with 13 seconds left to tie the score at 23-23. The ensuing extra point from Matt Weller gave the Bobcats their first and only lead of the game.

In the Aggies' first bowl game since 1997, senior RB Michael Smith ran for a career-high and USU bowl record 157 yards, scoring both of Utah State's rushing touchdowns. Junior RB Robert Turbin recorded his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season with 101 yards.

Utah State ended its historic season with a 7-6 record, its first seven-win season since 1993. The loss snapped the Aggies' five-game winning streak, and gave the Bobcats their first-ever bowl win in their sixth bowl appearance, ending the season 10-4.

The Aggies jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the first quarter after Tettleton fumbled in the end zone with 9:23 remaining in the first quarter.

USU expanded its lead to 9-0 later in the first quarter when junior QB Adam Kennedy connected with senior TE Tarren Lloyd for a 3-yard touchdown pass. The USU defense pitched its fourth first-quarter shutout of the season, and second in a row.

Ohio cut that lead to 9-7 early in the second quarter when Derek Roback scored on a 26-yard pass from Tettleton with 4:40 to play in the half. It would be the only score of the second quarter.

The Aggies wasted no time getting on the board in the third quarter when Smith broke off a 63-yard run with 12:19 remaining to put USU up 16-7. It was the longest rush allowed by the highly-touted Ohio defense during the season.

Less than three minutes later, the USU defense was able to hold the Bobcats to a field goal when Matt Weller drilled a 32-yard field goal to cut the Blue and White lead to 16-10.

The high-scoring third quarter continued with Smith scoring his second touchdown of the game on an 11-yard scamper and sophomore PK Josh Thompson booted his third extra point of the night to put USU up 23-10 with 5:51 left in the stanza. The frenzied third-quarter scoring wasn't done as Tettleton hit Brazill on a 44-yard scoring strike to pull the Bobcats within 23-17 at the 3:45 mark.

Kennedy was injured late in the third quarter, and freshman QB Chuckie Keeton returned under center for the first time since Nov. 5 after starting USU's first eight games of the season, but getting injured in the Hawai'i game. Keeton ran for a 10-yard gain on his first play, but the drive later stalled at midfield.

On USU's first drive of the fourth quarter, Kennedy returned and the Aggies again reached midfield, but couldn't get into scoring territory. The USU defense held Ohio, but Bobcat punter Paul Hershey boomed a 59-yard punt, pinning the Aggies at the USU 7. Utah State couldn't get a first down and had to punt it away to Ohio, and the Bobcats began their winning drive with 2:02 left.

Senior LB Kyle Gallagher (43) had nine tackles, including 0.5 for loss, against the Bobcats.

Senior RB Kerwynn Williams (25) rushed for a career-high 235 yards on just 18 carries and scored three touchdowns in leading Utah State to a 41-15 win against Toledo in the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Williams, who added two receptions for 34 yards, was named the game's MVP.

BOISE, Idaho - Utah State (11-2, 6-0 WAC) concluded its most successful season in school history with a 41-15 rout of Toledo (9-4, 6-2 MAC) in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Dec. 15, 2012, as senior RB Kerwynn Williams was named the game's Most Valuable Player as he ran for a career-best 235 yards and tied his career high with three touchdowns on runs of 63, 5 and 25 yards, all in the fourth quarter.

Utah State led 13-6 heading into the final 15 minutes of play before Toledo cut it to 13-9 following a 29-yard field goal with 7:28 to go. From there it was all USU as Williams scored his first touchdown of the game on a 63-yard run to cap a 2-play, 70-yard drive. Following a three-and-out by the Rockets, Williams rattled off a 56-yard run and then scored from five yards out to give USU a 27-9 advantage. During the drive, Williams accounted for all 62 yards on three carries. Sophomore FS Brian Suite then picked off Toledo's Austin Dantin two plays later, which led to Williams' third touchdown of the quarter on a 25-yard run, upping USU's lead to 34-9 following a 2-play, 39-yard drive. Toledo returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards for a score, its only touchdown of the day, to cut the deficit to 34-15. Junior RB Devante Mays rushed for 124 yards on 12 carries in Utah State's 23-21 loss to Akron, including a career-long 61-yard run. Mays' 124 rushing yards are the 11th-most in Famous Idaho Potato Bowl history.

BOISE, Idaho- In his final game as an Aggie, redshirt senior QB Chuckie Keeton set another school record, but it still wasn't enough for Utah State (6-7) to overcome three turnovers and several missed opportunities in the red zone in a 23-21 loss to Akron (8-5) in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Dec. 22, 2015, at Albertsons Stadium.

With the loss, the Aggies had their school-record three-game bowl winning streak snapped. Utah State was playing in its school-record fifth-consecutive bowl game.

Keeton completed 14-of-25 passes for 109 yards with one touchdown and one interception. With his 108 yards of total offense against the Zips, the native of Houston, Texas, became the school's all-time leader in total offense with 8,803 career yards.

Keeton's lone touchdown pass came with 1:12 remaining in the game, a 2-yarder to senior WR Brandon Swindall that pulled Utah State to within 23-21. Overall, Keeton's 62-career touchdown passes are also a school best.

After a failed on-side kick attempt, Utah State forced an Akron punt and took over on its own 12-yard line with six seconds remaining in the game. Keeton completed an 8-yard pass to senior WR Hunter Sharp, but the clock ran out following a couple of backward laterals.

Sophomore QB Thomas Woodson was 14-of-29 for 168 yards and one interception for Akron, which won its first-ever bowl game.

Like Keeton, sophomore QB Kent Myers also completed 14 passes on 20 attempts for 123 yards and two touchdowns as USU had two quarterbacks each throw for 100 yards in the same game for the first time since 1996.

Sharp caught a Utah State bowl-record 11 passes for 93 yards and a touchdown, while Devante Mays led all rushers in the game with 124 yards on 12 carries.

Defensively, the Aggies were led by senior LB LT Filiaga and senior NG David Moala, who had eight tackles apiece. Moala, who also had a career-best 2.5 tackles for loss and 0.5 sacks, tied his career high with those eight stops. Sophomore CB Jalen Davis recorded USU's lone turnover of the day when he intercepted a pass in the second quarter.

The Aggies took their only lead of the game when they marched 64 yards to paydirt in seven plays to start the third quarter. Sharp capped the drive with a 19-yard touchdown reception from Myers, giving Utah State a 14-13 lead. Myers set up the score with a 27-yard run on third-and-17 from the Zips' 46.

Akron cashed in on USU's third turnover and went in front for good on a 2-yard touchdown run by senior RB Donnell Alexander, making it 20-14 with 5:43 to go in the third.

The Zips increased their lead to 23-14 with 8:15 to go in the fourth when Robert Stein booted a 46-yard field goal, capping a 14-play drive that ate up nearly seven minutes.

Akron struck first on a trick play when redshirt junior WR Tyrell Goodman threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Woodson for a 7-0 lead just 4:22 into the first quarter.

The Zips made it 10-0 with 2:53 remaining in the second quarter courtesy of a 33-yard field goal by Stein.

However, the Aggies fought back on the ensuing possession when Myers threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to senior Swindall to pull the Aggies within 10-7 with 1:32 left in the half.

Akron added a 29-yard field goal on the last play of the half, following a USU fumble, to make the score 13-7.

In the first half, Utah State twice reached the red zone only to come away empty-handed as Keeton was intercepted and later muffed a snap on a 35-yard field goal attempt.

Senior NG David Moala tied his career high with eight tackles and had a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss, which included 0.5 sacks, to go along with one pass breakup against the Zips.

Senior RB LaJuan Hunt (21) rushed for a season-high 133 yards on 20 carries with one touchdown in Utah State's 26-20 overtime loss to New Mexico State in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl. Hunt added three receptions for 25 yards in the game.

TUCSON, Ariz. - Senior RB LaJuan Hunt capped his Utah State (6-7) career by rushing for 133 yards – the most yardage by an Aggie this season – and one touchdown on 20 carries in Utah State's 26-20 overtime loss to New Mexico State in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl, at Arizona Stadium on Friday, Dec. 29, 2017.

Hunt, who finished his career with 1,846 yards rushing, the 11th-most in school history, and 18 touchdowns, which is tied for the 10th-most, scored on a 1-yard run with 13:28 remaining in the fourth quarter to give the designated home team a 20-13 lead.

New Mexico State RB Larry Rose III scored the game-winning touchdown in overtime on a 21-yard run after Utah State sophomore PK Dominik Eberle hit the right upright from 29 yards out.

New Mexico State (7-6) tied it at 20-apiece on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Rogers to Jaleel Scott with 6:31 remaining. Rogers completed 29-of-54 passes for 191 yards. Rose led the NewMags in both rushing and receiving as he had 142 yards on 16 carries on the ground, to go along with six receptions for 48 yards.

New Mexico State entered the game ranked fourth in the nation averaging 352.6 passing yards per game, but Utah State limited the NewMags to 191 yards – 161.6 below their season average.

The navy-cladded Aggies shined defensively as they forced three turnovers, including interceptions by redshirt freshman LB David Woodward and senior BS Dallin Leavitt, along with a fumble recovery by junior LB Chase Christiansen, who led USU with eight tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss. Leavitt added seven stops, while Woodward had four stops and a career-best three pass breakups.

Redshirt freshman QB Jordan Love was 25-of-44, both of which are career highs, for 254 yards. His favorite target was junior WR Ron'quavion Tarver, who caught eight passes for 97 yards.

Utah State had numerous chances to put more points on the board, but four missed field goals and a turnover in the red zone after having a first-and-goal at the 1-yard line spelled doom.

The first half started with a bang as the two teams combined to score 17 points in less than a one-minute span, courtesy of a field goal and back-to-back kickoff returns for touchdowns.

New Mexico State's Dylan Brown opened the scoring with a 23-yard field goal to give the designated visitors a 3-0 lead with 11:15 remaining in the first quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, freshman WR Savon Scarver returned the kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown, making it 7-3 for USU just 14 seconds later.

Scarver's kickoff return for a touchdown was the first-ever in a bowl game for Utah State and tied for the sixth-longest in school history.

However, USU's lead was short-lived as NMSU returned the next kickoff 100 yards, giving the white-cladded Aggies a 10-7 lead.

Those were the only touchdowns of the first half, though. Eberle tied the score at 10-all with a 35-yard field goal, then New Mexico State regained the lead on a 33-yard field goal.

Brown booted a 33-yard field goal to give the NewMags a 13-10 lead with 11:35 left in the half, but Eberle countered with a 30-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter, sending the two teams into the break deadlocked at 13-apiece.

Junior LB Chase Christiansen (48) had eight tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, and one fumble recovery against NMSU.

Sophomore QB Jordan Love (10) was 21-of-43 passing for 359 yards and four touchdowns in Utah State's 52-13 win against North Texas in the New Mexico Bowl. Love, who was named the Offensive MVP, also rushed for a score.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Sophomore QB Jordan Love helped put an exclamation mark on one of the best seasons in school history, passing for 359 yards and four touchdowns, to go along with another on the ground, as Utah State blew out North Texas 52-13 in the New Mexico Bowl on Saturday, Dec. 15, at Dreamstyle Stadium.

Love, who earned Offensive MVP honors, ended the season with a school-record 3,567 yards passing. Love also set a trio of school records for a bowl game with his 362 yards of total offense, 359 yards passing and four touchdown passes.

Utah State (11-2), which tied the school record for most wins in a single season, set a Mountain West record with 618 points scored, breaking the old mark of 608 set by BYU in 2001. The Aggies also accomplished the feat in one less game.

The 52 points scored by Utah State, which racked up 556 yards of total offense – 359 through the air and 197 on the ground – tied the New Mexico Bowl record and set the school record for a bowl game.

Interim head coach Frank Maile gets credit for the win as Utah State played the game with only four full-time coaches, as well as the team's graduate assistants, on the sideline after former head coach Matt Wells left for Texas Tech, taking many staff members with him.

Defensively, Utah State shut down a North Texas (9-4) offense that lost star quarterback Mason Fine to a hamstring injury early in the game and could never recover as backups Quinn Shanbour and Jason Bean combined to throw four interceptions.

Utah State junior CB DJ Williams intercepted two of those passes, which tied a school record in a bowl game. Williams was tabbed the Defensive MVP of the game. Senior S Aaron Wade and sophomore LB David Woodward had the other picks for the Aggies. Woodward led USU with 10 tackles, while senior LB Chase Christiansen had eight and Wade had seven. Junior LB Tipa Galeai recorded six tackles, including 3.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks, and forced a fumble, playing in just the second half.

As has been the case all season long, Utah State's quick-strike offense opened the game's scoring as Love threw a 72-yard touchdown pass to senior WR Aaren Vaughns to give the designated visitors a 7-0 lead just 40 seconds into the contest. Vaughns finished with two catches – both touchdowns – for 109 yards. He was one of two USU receivers to go over the century mark as senior WR Jalen Greene set the school record for a bowl game with 151 yards receiving and one touchdowns on six receptions.

After North Texas tied it at 7-all on a 2-yard touchdown run by DeAndre Torrey, Utah State proceeded to score 31 unanswered points, opening up a 38-7 lead at halftime.

The final three points in that blitz by the Aggies came off the foot of junior PK Dominik Eberle via a 42-yard field goal. Eberle scored 10 points in the game and finished the season with a school-record 141 points. Eberle also tied the school record for most field goals attempted in a season with 28.

Junior CB DJ Williams (7) was named the Defensive MVP as he intercepted two passes against the Mean Green.

Junior RB Gerold Bright led the Aggies on the ground with 103 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while fellow junior RB Darwin Thompson added 93 yards on a career-high 21 carries. Thompson ended the season with 1,044 yards rushing – the 16th-most in school history – becoming the first USU player to rush for 1,000 yards since 2013. Thompson is the 32nd different player in school history to have 1,000 yards rushing.

This was Utah State's seventh bowl game in the past eight seasons. The Aggies improved to 5-8 all-time in bowl games and 2-0 in the New Mexico Bowl.

Junior QB Jordan Love (10) was 30-of-39 passing for 317 yards and three touchdowns in Utah State's 51-41 loss to Kent State in the Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl. Love also carried the ball 10 times for 16 yards. Those 30 completions are a bowl record for USU.

FRISCO, Texas - Utah State closed out the 2019 season with a 51-41 loss to Kent State in the 2019 Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl at Toyota Stadium on Friday, Dec. 20.

Junior QB Jordan Love was 30-of-39 passing for 317 yards and three touchdowns, including two to senior graduate transfer WR Siaosi Mariner. Love set a USU bowl game record with his 30 completions, while Mariner tied the USU bowl game record for touchdown receptions. Mariner had seven catches for 113 yards. His 11-yard touchdown reception with 3:06 to go in the game pulled the Aggies (7-6) to within 44-41.

However, Kent State recovered a squib kick on the ensuing kickoff and returned it 44 yards, setting up the final touchdown for the Golden Flashes (7-6).

Dustin Crum, tabbed the Offensive MVP of the game, accounted for 436 yards of total offense and three touchdowns. He was 21-of-26 for 289 yards and two touchdowns through the air, to go along with a game-best 147 yards and the one fourth-quarter score on 23 carries.

In his final game as an Aggie, Love set the school record for total offense in a career. He had 333 yards against Kent State, including 16 on the ground, to give him 9,003 total career yards. The old mark of 8,808 yards was previously held by fellow quarterback Chuckie Keeton (2011-15), who was on the sideline cheering his alma mater on Friday night.

Senior RB Gerold Bright led the Aggies on the ground with 94 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries. Sophomore WR Deven Thompkins scored on a 57-yard run early in the fourth quarter to pull Utah State to tie the game at 34-all.

Thompkins also caught four passes for 51 yards and a touchdown, while junior WR Jordan Nathan led Utah State with nine receptions for 71 yards.

Senior PK Dominik Eberle ended his stellar Utah State career by kicking a pair of field goals from 41 and 45 yards, respectively, and making all five of his extra points. His 45-yard field goal is the longest by an Aggie in a bowl game.

The Aggies finished with 506 yards of total offense, while the Golden Flashes had 550.

Two players finished with double-digit tackles for Utah State, led by a career-high 14 stops from junior S Troy Lefeged Jr., which is also a USU bowl game record. Redshirt freshman DE Elijah Shelton added a career-high 10 tackles. Lefeged also forced a fumble, which was recovered by junior DE Nick Heninger.

Utah State got the ball to start the game and scored on its opening possession. Bright capped the 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 4-yard touchdown run to give the Aggies a 7-0 lead less than three minutes in.

Kent State also scored on its opening possession on a 78-yard touchdown pass. The Golden Flashes made it 17-7 late in the first quarter on a 2-yard run and 40-yard field goal.

Utah State pulled within 17-10 when Eberle made a 41-yard field goal with three seconds left in the opening quarter. A 25-yard touchdown pass from Love to Mariner tied it at 17-all with 8:24 left in the second quarter.

Kent State went into the halftime break with a 23-17 lead after field goals of 22 and 36 yards, respectively.

After falling behind 26-17 early in the third, Utah State rallied to take its final lead of the game when Thompkins scored on a 17-yard pass from Love and Eberle booted his 45-yard field game to make it 27-26 with 2:27 left in the quarter.

Junior S Troy Lefeged Jr. (7) set a USU bowl game record with a career-high 14 tackles, to go along with a forced fumble, against the Golden Flashes.

Senior WR Deven Thompkins (13) was named the Offensive MVP of the Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl as he had six receptions for 115 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown, in Utah State's 24-13 win against Oregon State.

INGLEWOOD, Calif. - Sophomore QB Cooper Legas came off the bench to throw a pair of touchdown passes in just his second-ever game as Utah State (11-3) capped off an incredible season with a 24-13 win against Oregon State (7-6) on Saturday, Dec. 18, 2021, in the inaugural Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl at SoFi Stadium.

Legas came in when graduate junior QB Logan Bonner suffered a knee injury during the first quarter. On Legas' very first play, he connected with senior WR Deven Thompkins on a 62-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 7-apiece early in the second quarter. It was Legas' first-ever collegiate pass. Thompkins, named the game's Offensive MVP, had six receptions for 115 yards. Bonner was 6-of-10 passing for 68 yards and an interception before leaving the contest.

Legas, who was 11-of-20 passing for 171 yards, also threw a 5-yard touchdown to graduate senior WR Brandon Bowling to give the Aggies a 24-13 lead late in the third quarter. Legas also had a 34-yard reception on a double pass from senior WR Derek Wright earlier in the drive. Bowling finished the game with four receptions for 51 yards, while Wright caught three passes for 33 yards. Senior TE Carson Terrell added two receptions for 25 yards.

Graduate junior RB Calvin Tyler Jr. ran for 120 yards on a career-high 26 carries against his former team, including a 15-yard touchdown with 4:24 remaining in the second quarter to give the Aggies a 14-10 lead.

Graduate senior PK Connor Coles kicked a 25-yard field goal to give Utah State a 17-10 lead following a 13-play, 67-yard drive to start the third quarter.

Utah State finished the game with 383 yards of total offense (273 passing, 110 rushing) and had 27 first downs, its second-most in a game this season. USU also had three turnovers with two interceptions and a lost fumble.

Graduate senior DE Nick Heninger was named the Defensive MVP after recording career-highs with 3.0 sacks and 5.0 tackles for loss as part of his seven tackles. Graduate senior ILB Justin Rice led USU with nine tackles and a forced fumble in the fourth quarter. Graduate senior OLB Cash Gilliam, graduate senior S Shaq Bond, and junior OLB Ajani Carter all added seven tackles in the game. For Carter, it tied for the most tackles in a game in his career.

Graduate junior S Hunter Reynolds added an interception late in the fourth quarter for Utah State, to go along with a pass breakup. USU had three pass breakups overall as junior CB Cam Lampkin and junior DE Byron Vaughns also had one each.

Junior DT Hale Motu'apuaka also had a sack as USU's defense registered 4.0 sacks and 6.0 tackles for loss in the game. Oregon State entered the LA Bowl having allowed just 10.0 sacks the entire season.

Oregon State received the opening kickoff and scored 58 seconds into the game when Jesiah Irish went 20 yards up the left sideline on a jet sweep. That would prove to be the Beavers' only touchdown, though, as their other points came on a pair of field goals by Everett Hayes.

The Beavers' Chance Nolan was 21-of-30 passing for 263 yards and an interception, while B.J. Baylor, who led the Pac-12 in rushing, had 18 carries for 78 yards.

Oregon State finished the game with 415 yards of total offense (263 passing, 152 rushing), but also committed 13 penalties for 91 yards, and had a pair of turnovers with an interception and fumble.

Graduate senior DE Nick Heninger (42) was named the Defensive MVP as he had career highs with 3.0 sacks and 5.0 tackles for loss as part of his seven total tackles against the Beavers.

Graduate senior WR Brian Cobbs (8) had six receptions for 79 yards, including a 44-yard touchdown, in Utah State's 38-10 loss to Memphis in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl.

DALLAS, Texas - Utah State managed just 261 yards of total offense as it lost to Memphis 38-10 in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl, held at Gerald J. Ford Stadium on the SMU Campus on Tuesday, Dec. 29, 2022.

Memphis QB Seth Henigan passed for 284 yards and three first-half touchdowns, while Jevyon Ducker rushed for 83 yards and two scores, as the Tigers amassed 430 yards of total offense (284 passing, 146 rushing).

Henigan was 15-of-21 for 217 yards and three touchdowns in the first half alone for the Tigers, who finished their season at 7-6. Eddie Lewis was on the receiving end of two of those touchdowns as he caught five passes for 83 yards on the day.

Junior QB Cooper Legas started for the Aggies (6-7), but suffered a game-ending injury in the third quarter and was replaced by true freshman QB Bishop Davenport. Legas was 7-of-12 passing for 34 yards and one interception, while Davenport was 7-of-9 passing for 100 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Sophomore QB Levi Williams also saw his first action since suffering a injury in game seven at Colorado State back in mid-October, and was 1-of-2 passing for one yard and one interception.

Davenport's 44-yard touchdown pass to graduate senior WR Brian Cobbs pulled Utah State to within 24-10 with 11:04 to go in the game.

The Aggies then attempted an onside kick, but the Tigers recovered and put two more touchdowns on the board to thwart off any chance of a comeback by Utah State.

Cobbs finished with six catches for 79 yards, while graduate senior RB Calvin Tyler Jr. ended his Aggie career by rushing for 79 yards on 16 carries. Junior WR Terrell Vaughn caught four passes for 34 yards, while Legas added 25 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Utah States finished with 261 total yards – 135 via the air and 126 on the ground.

Senior ILB AJ Vongphachanh had nine tackles and a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss, while true freshman ILB Max Alford also had nine tackles, a career high, to go along with a career-best 2.0 tackles for loss. Senior CB Ajani Carter added a career-high eight stops.

Graduate junior DE Daniel Grzesiak had 2.0 sacks and 2.5 tackles for loss, to go along with a forced fumble that was recovered by junior DE Byron Vaughns. Vaughns also had 1.0 sacks and 2.0 tackles for loss as part of his season-high seven tackles. Junior DT Poukesi Vakauta also had 1.0 sacks and 1.5 tackles for loss, both career highs.

Utah State finished with a season-high-tying 5.0 sacks and a season-high 14.0 tackles for loss. In fact, those 14.0 TFLs are tied for the second-most in a game in school history.

The Tigers dominated practically every facet of the first half as they outgained the Aggies 273-89, had 10 more first downs (16-6) and maintained possession of the ball for more than 19 minutes.

Memphis cracked the scoreboard first when Chris Howard booted a 26-yard field goal late in the first quarter. Utah State answered back with a 3-pointer of its own courtesy of a career-long 53-yarder from graduate senior PK Connor Coles with 12:13 remaining in the second quarter, which is tied for the eighth-longest in school history.

It was all Tigers after that. Memphis scored touchdowns on its final three drives of the half to take a 24-3 lead into the break.

This was the first meeting between Utah State and Memphis since 1977. The Tigers have won three straight over the Aggies and lead the overall series 5-3.

Freshman ILB Max Alford (33) had a career-high nine tackles, which included a career-best 2.0 tackles for loss, against the Tigers.

ALAN L. SMITH

Rochester, 1990
February, 2025 - Present (First Year)

Alan L. Smith was appointed Interim President of Utah State University, effective February 20, 2025. He joined Utah State University as professor of Kinesiology and Health Science and dean of the Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services in July 2021. Smith was honored as the inaugural Emma Eccles Jones Endowed Dean in June 2024, the first endowed deanship awarded at the university.

Smith has over 27 years of experience in higher education, both as a faculty member and as an administrator. Prior to joining Utah State, Smith served nine years as professor and chairperson of the Department of Kinesiology at Michigan State University, held professorship positions at Purdue University from 1998 to 2012, and began his career in 1997 at the University of Virginia. He has also held visiting professorships in Finland and the United Kingdom.

Under Smith's leadership, the Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services has made noteworthy strides, including securing state support to create the Alzheimer's Disease and Dementia Research Center, securing funding to support mental health services, expanding the footprint of USU's nursing program through the new Emma Eccles Jones Advanced Nursing Education Suite, and growing the research and communications infrastructure of the College.

A first-generation college graduate, Smith has a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Rochester, a master's degree in exercise and sport science from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and a doctorate in exercise and movement science from the University of Oregon.

Smith is widely known for his research on the link between sport and physical activity involvement with young people's psychological and social functioning. His work addresses peer relationships in the physical activity domain (e.g., sport, physical education) and the motivational implications of these relationships for children and adolescents. He also conducts interdisciplinary research on physical activity as a tool to address symptoms and impairments of attention-deficit/hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) in young children. A fellow of the National Academy of Kinesiology, Smith has served on a number of journal editorial boards in kinesiology and psychology, is a past president of the American Kinesiology Association and the North American Society for the Psychology of Sport and Physical Activity, and has served on the President's Council on Sports, Fitness & Nutrition Science Board.

/// THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST ///

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 27th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements throughout its existence, most notably becoming the first league to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. When the CFP expanded to include 12 teams in 2024, Boise State earned the No. 3 seed and a bye into the quarterfinals of the playoffs, where it faced Penn State in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas, Phoenix and Reno, home to UNLV, Grand Canyon and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West Coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains. With the addition of Washington State as an affiliate member in women's swimming and baseball, the Mountain West footprint stretches into the Pacific Northwest.

/// HISTORY OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST ///

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The eight presidents then hired the league's first commissioner, Craig Thompson, on Oct. 15, 1998. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants. On July 1, 2024, Washington State University joined the Mountain West for women's swimming and baseball for a two year period. On July 8, 2025, Grand Canyon University became the league's 12th full time member (non-football).

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Then Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In 2024, the Broncos became the first team from a non-autonomous conference to claim an automatic bid and a playoff bye in the expanded 12-team CFP field. Boise State earned the No. 3 seed, finishing ahead of the Big 12 and ACC champions.

On Dec. 31, 2022, Thompson retired after nearly 24 years at the helm of the MW, and Gloria Nevarez was named the league's second Commissioner, beginning her post on Jan. 1, 2023.
